United States. Superintendent of Documents, 1896 The Intelligence War in Latin America, 1914-1922 Jamie Bisher, 2016-03-07 World War I did not bypass Latin America Within days of the war s outbreak European belligerents mobilized intelligence assets and secret diplomacy to compete for Latin America s allegiances and resources This intelligence war entangled all of the American republics and even Japan Dreary consular offices from the Rio Grande to the Straits of Magellan were abruptly thrust into covert activities trafficking in fugitives running contraband and conducting sabotage Revolutionary and counter revolutionary movements big oil international banks and businesses were also drawn in Drawing on long classified U S intelligence documents this narrative of the Latin American intelligence war reveals the complexity and chaos behind the placid veneer of wartime Pan America The author connects the dots between Mexico City Buenos Aires Guatemala City Lima Havana Santiago Rio de Janeiro Berlin London Washington Tokyo and dozens of safe houses front companies consulates legations and headquarters in between Scores of unrecognized veterans of the intelligence war are revealed Wings of the Rising Sun Mark Chambers, 2018-11-29 A fascinating insight into how the Allies learned about the capabilities and limitations of the Imperial Japanese Naval Air Force and Japanese Army Air Force through flight testing and evaluation of enemy equipment In the Pacific War s early years Japanese air power was dominant The only way for the Allies to defeat their enemy was to know it This made the task of maintaining productive intelligence gathering efforts on Japan imperative Establishing Technical Air Intelligence Units in the Pacific Theatre and the Technical Air Intelligence Center in Washington DC the Allies were able to begin to reveal the secrets of Japanese air power through extensive flight testing and evaluation of captured enemy aircraft and equipment These provided an illuminating perspective on Japanese aircraft and aerial weapon design philosophy and manufacturing practice Fully illustrated throughout with a wealth of previously unpublished photographs Mark Chambers explores Allied efforts to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of Japanese air power during the war years and how this intelligence helped them achieve victory in the Pacific

Report of the Committee on Organization of the Department of the Navy United States. Navy Department, Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States. National Archives and Records Administration, 200? This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931 1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA s custody While this finding aid s coverage is broad it is not comprehensive Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Eisenhower Archives Think of archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination
