Curriculum, Schooling and Society in Hong Kong Paul Morris, Bob Adamson, 2010-11-01 Hong Kong is a fascinating place for the study of curriculum Its schooling system is influenced by the legacies of a Chinese tradition and British colonialism and was developed at a time when around the world that state was taking more responsibility for the education of young people and educational policies were increasingly influenced by the impact of globalization To this we can add the complexities of Hong Kong as a society one that has witnessed major political and economic changes over the past 150 years or so and particularly since the late 1970s The dynamics produce an intricate interplay of innovation and conservatism globalization and localization liberalism and authoritarianism devolution and centralization and many other tensions This book provides a comprehensive introduction to curriculum as a field of study in a way which highlights its inherent dilemmas and complexities by illustrating the diverse ways in which a curriculum can be developed and analyzed It also presents a specific analysis of the Hong Kong school curriculum and highlights the ways in which the curriculum both reflects and changes in response to broader socio political shifts Publisher s website

Sixteenth-Century English Dictionaries John Considine, 2022-05-26 This is the first volume in the trilogy Dictionaries in the English Speaking World 1500 1800 which will offer a new history of lexicography in and beyond the early modern British Isles The volume explores the dictionaries wordlists and glossaries that were compiled and read by speakers of English from the end of the Middle Ages to the year 1600 These include the first printed dictionaries in which English words were collected the dictionaries of Latin used by all educated English speakers from young children to Shakespeare to adult royalty the dictionaries of modern languages that gave English speakers access to the languages and cultures of continental Europe dictionaries and wordlists documenting other languages from Armenian to Malagasy to Welsh and a great variety of specialized English wordlists No unified history has ever surveyed this vast lively and culturally significant lexicographical output before The guiding principle of the book and the trilogy is that a story about dictionaries must also be a story about human beings John Considine offers a full and sympathetic account of those who compiled and used these works and those who supported them financially paying particular attention to records of dictionary use and its traces in surviving copies The volume will appeal to all those interested in the languages and literary cultures of the sixteenth century English speaking world

Rainforest Ikénnà Nn?l?, 2020-08-28 I know who I am Kelvin seemed desperate to win his father's approval However Mr Eze not only seemed unwilling to bestow it but hell bent in making life unbearable for his acclaimed son Kelvin thought it would be best to find his true family rather than endure the torture of being the unwanted child He realised that his quest for recognition was unlikely to succeed so he set his eyes on freedom In the meantime Kelvin expected that a good academic performance would change his luck and put him right with Mr Eze or at least boost his confidence in his abilities With all his attention on his studies competing for the best grades against the leading brains in his class especially Christian an indomitable rival he would not let school romance get in the way of his goal But slowly and steadily Chioma gained his trust and won him over He would have to make a decision between holding on to his moral principle or satisfying his human desire for friendship New Home New Identity Marginalised and decimated the Biafran people were forced to go to war and secede from Nigeria But decades after losing the war and embracing the Nigerian identity they are still not treated as equal citizens in their home country As a new wave of terrorism sweeps the northern parts of the country the Biafran people predominantly Igbo are again decimated as they have been for decades in every crisis and this led to renewed discussions about their independence For Biafra the fight for equality was over and their Sovereignty was not negotiable For Kelvin it wasn't very different and so his quest for truth and independence must begin His compulsory holiday in Igbo land would expose him to the truth that might have indirectly caused him to abandon his academic pursuit Perhaps it was just an excuse to free himself from the clutch of Mr Eze and begin his quest for the truth about his identity The NLM Technical Bulletin ,1997
