Fesenko, Dr. Surendra Misra, Dr. Sanjay Kumar Dwivedi, 2017-06-22 This issue of SOCRATES has been divided into four sections. The first section of this issue is Language Literature Persian which contains an article authored by Nazia Jafri. In this paper, hidden corners and unfamiliar life and priceless works of Hussain Quli Mastan, who was the first Iranian photo journalist, have been introduced. The second section of this issue is Language and Literature English. Paper authored by Dr P Saravanakumar studies the use of a mask in Girish Karnad's play Tughlaq. Tughlaq is the most complex and complicated of Girish Karnad's works. Paper authored by R Kaliyaperumal highlights the Science and Technology in Dan Brown's Digital Fortress. Paper authored by Vincent P discusses Black Community Voice Echoes on Eradicate of Identity in Toni Morrison's Novel Home. While exploring the twenty-first century work Home, we find the voices which indicate the voice of the colonised people. A deep study of this novel exposes the events and happenings at the time of colonisation. It also exposes their emotions and feelings. The third section of this issue is Philosophy. Paper authored by Giuseppe Gagliano intends to identify several key concepts that emerge from an analysis of Aron's acclaimed work on the role played by Marxist Leninist ideology in the development of the 20th century philosophic thought. Paper authored by Rocco Angelo Astore is an argument in favor of the Universal health care. The fourth section of this issue is Politics Law and Governance. Paper authored by Dr Galyna Fesenko and Dr Tetiana Fesenko aims to outline the role of e-democracy within the setting of the Eastern Partnership program. The article provides the comparative review of E-Government progress in six EaP countries in 2009-2016. Paper authored by Dr Surendra Misra is related to Governance. Good Governance and development of different sectors in India. Paper authored by Dr Sanjay Kumar Dwivedi focuses on the E-Governance initiatives that have changed the life style of rural citizens and in which the citizens derive benefit through direct transactions with the services provided by the union and the provincial governments. The paper also highlights the variety of constraints in implementing the E-governance projects in rural areas.

The Imperative of Development Geoffrey Gertz, Homi Kharas, Johannes F. Linn, 2017-09-12 The achievements and legacy of the Wolfensohn Center for Development at Brookings. The Imperative of Development highlights the research and policy analysis produced by the Wolfensohn Center for Development at Brookings. The Center which operated from 2006 to 2011 was the first home at Brookings for research on international development. It sought to help identify effective solutions to key development challenges in order to create a more prosperous and stable world. Founded by James and Elaine Wolfensohn, the Center's mission was to create knowledge that leads to action with real scaled up and lasting development impact. This volume reviews the Center's achievements and lasting legacy combining highlights of its most important research with new essays that examine the context and impact of that research. Six primary research streams of the Wolfensohn Center's work are highlighted in The Imperative of Development: the shifting structure of the world economy in the twenty-first century, the challenge of scaling up the impact of development interventions, the effectiveness of development assistance, how to promote economic and social inclusion for Middle Eastern youth, the case for investing in early child development and the need for global governance reform In each chapter a scholar associated with the particular research topic provides an overview of the issue and its broader context then describes the Center's work on the topic and the subsequent influence and impact of these efforts The Imperative of Development chronicles the growth and expansion of the first center for development research in Brookings's 100 year history and traces how the seeds of this initiative continue to bear fruit

Editorial We are living in an era of digitization thus moving towards a digital government The use of ICT in public administration is beneficial and it is not mere a coincidence that the top 10 countries in e government implementation according to UN E Government Survey 2016 are flourishing democracies There has been a sharp rise in the number of countries using e government to provide public services online through one stop platform According to the 2016 survey 90 countries now offer one or more single entry portal on public information or online services or both and 148 countries provide at least one form of online transaction services More and more countries are making efforts through e government to ensure and increase inclusiveness effectiveness accountability and transparency in their public institutions Across the globe data for public information and security is being opened up The 2016 survey shows that 128 countries now provide data sets on government spending in machine readable formats E government and innovation seems to have provided significant opportunities to transform public administration into an instrument of sustainable development The governments around the globe are rapidly transforming The use of information and communication technology in public administration combined with organizational change and new skills seems to be improving public services and democratic processes and strengthening support to public policies There has been an increased effort to utilize advanced electronic and mobile services that benefits all Fixed and wireless broadband subscriptions have increased unevenly across regions with Europe leading but Africa still lagging behind We have to focus on these substantial region disparities and growing divide All countries agreed in SDG 9 that a major effort is required to ensure universal access to internet in the least developed countries The rise of Social media and its easy access seems to have enabled an increasing number of countries moving towards participatory decision making in which developed European countries are among the top 50 performers But the issues of diminishing collective thinking and rising Individual thinking are some rising issues that we will have to deal with in the future There are more sensitive issues like the new classification of citizens into literate illiterate e literate and e illiterate that the governments need to look upon It is a good sign that many developing countries are making good progress Enhanced e participation can support the realization of the SDGs by enabling more participatory decision making but the success of e government will ultimately depend upon our ability and capability to solve the contrasting issues raised due to this transition with sensitivity In this issue of SOCRATES we have discussed this new era of Digital Government We have focused on what we have learned from the past and the future we want From discussions on the role of e governance within the local government settings in a modern democratic state to the experience of an academia with online examination we have tried to include every possible aspect of e government Paper authored by Dr Hoff Maarten aims to outline the role of e governance within the setting of a local government in a modern democratic state It is agreed that a local governmental organization needs to be fit for the purpose of serving its citizens Fits can be tested both through universally acknowledged principles and drivers that suit modern on demand organizations Paper authored by Mr Alsaeed Abraheem and Dr Carl proposes a conceptual framework which captures the main factors both enablers and barriers influence and contributes toward a successful implementation of eServices in countries that have unstable status The paper draws upon Osborn and Gaebler s work reinventing government which identifies 10 principles of government transformation This is used to examine eGov examples in the case of Syria along with previous work covering barriers and enablers to eGov activities within countries that have unstable status The resulting derived conceptual framework provides a base to understand eGov activity for nations going through geopolitical uncertainty Paper authored by Mr Saurabh Chandra highlights the initiatives taken by the Governments in India at various levels to modernise their processes and functions for delivery of information and services to the citizens using the Information and Communication technology ICT It also highlights E Government uptake in different parts of the world highlighting its need in India as in developing countries like India there is no comprehensive data on actual e government uptake on a global scale Paper authored by Mr Peter Asare Nuamah and Mr Darko Emmanuel Agyepong highlights the various legal policies and framework that support e governance in Ghana as well as the challenges of implementing e governance initiatives The findings of the study indicate that several policies and frameworks support e governance in Ghana but their implementations are burdened with social cultural political and legal constraints The study provides some recommendations that are necessary to tackle the challenges of e governance implementation Paper authored by Mr Ojo Patrick highlights battling sub Saharan African countries The perspective in this paper is that the emergence of democratic governments in this region occurred through lopsided process which impacts on their governance structures Consequently the institutionalization of liberal democracy has been omitted the absence of which creates gaps between aspiration for and struggle by African people for democracy on the one hand and the actual performance of democratic governments on the other hand The paper identifies structural deficiencies in the current pattern of governance as the political missing link in the value chain between democracy and development in the region The paper recommends e governance an administrative process that guarantees good governance through accountability and transparency as the necessary connecting link and panacea to bridging the observable existing gaps Paper authored by Dr Nandita Kaushal highlights the Plausibility of E Governance as a Public Service Delivery Mechanism in India It argues that there is no doubt wherever e governance projects have been conceived designed and implemented with due regard to the needs of the people there positive outcomes have been visible However it has to be acknowledged that most of the projects are facing multiple challenges which are reducing their success rate It recommends serious consideration to all the issues which are hampering their efficiency At the same time it suggests measures that must be taken up to maintain the human face of these initiatives Paper authored by Dr Inderjeet Singh Sodhi reviews the achievements and progress of e government in India The paper briefly discusses various e government projects in India The purpose of the paper is to delve into policy and issue of the government of India in making e government accessible to the common person It briefly identifies the strategic issues for achievement of e government This paper derives a list of key strategic factors that are appropriate for planning designing development and implementation of e government The paper identifies the range of diverse problems challenges and barriers planners and developers must face as they work in the e government projects The paper discusses prospects and future of e government in India The paper highlights the role of government to develop richer and deeper understanding of e government Paper authored by Ms Shreyasi Ghosh attempts to trace the essence of e government in the modern era of Indian Public Administration today as another new paradigm shift is in the offspring and slowly becoming distinct from the amorphous shape of Public Administration in the Indian context with the ICT blessed governance or e Governance Paper authored by Ms Stuti Saxena probes the OGD platform using a qualitative and quantitative lens This paper shows that OGD usage is popular among the end users in terms of the number of views and downloads of the datasets Future research might undertake the empirical investigation of the research hypotheses advanced in the paper Paper authored by Dr Jyotirmoy W Singh is developed by a contributor who has been a national and International online examiner for past six or more years This paper is based on his experience It seeks to compare the traditional mode of examination with that of the online examination in citing the mode of High School Leaving Examination of Board of Secondary Education Manipur and International Baccalaureate Organisation IBO examination as case studies I wish scholars and potential readers will find this issue useful We will bring more special issues focused on e government and other various dimensions of governance in the near future Issue Editor Prof Manoj Dixit Professor and Head Department of Public Administration University of Lucknow Lucknow India

The Oxford Handbook of Corporate Law and Governance

Jeffrey N. Gordon, Wolf-Georg Ringe, 2018-04-26 Corporate law and corporate governance have been at the forefront of regulatory activities across the world for several decades now and are subject to increasing public attention following the Global Financial Crisis of 2008 The Oxford Handbook of Corporate Law and Governance provides the global framework necessary to understand the aims and methods of legal research in this field Written by leading scholars from around the world the Handbook contains a rich variety of chapters that provide a comparative and functional overview of corporate governance It opens with the central theoretical approaches and methodologies in corporate law scholarship in Part I before examining core substantive topics in corporate law including shareholder rights takeovers and restructuring and minority rights in Part II Part III focuses on new challenges in the field including conflicts between Western and Asian corporate governance environments the rise of foreign ownership and emerging markets Enforcement issues are covered in Part IV and Part V takes a broader approach examining those areas of law and finance that are interwoven with corporate governance including insolvency taxation and securities law as well as financial regulation The Handbook is a comprehensive interdisciplinary resource placing corporate law and governance in its wider context and is essential reading for scholars practitioners and policymakers in the field

Reconfiguring National, Institutional and Human Strategies for the 21st Century Leon Cremonini, John Taylor, K.M. Joshi, 2022-06-22 This book addresses policies and strategies on internationalization across very different higher education systems globally including inter alia from South America Asia and Africa The volume zooms in on the interplay between the national institutional and human levels of internationalization The latter is especially novel in that it pays particular attention to how internationalization shapes individuals rather than only to the effects on student learning or research productivity The work expounds on a the role of internationalization in fostering ethical forms of integration and preparing citizens to engage in dialogue across those differences b the possible trade offs between private benefits and negative social effects and c the contribution of internationalization to a global community of minds By discussing the human dimension it becomes clear how internationalization can contribute to defining unique ways to confront today's societal challenges Moreover as the world is facing unprecedented challenges in the wake of the coronavirus a specific chapter examines how the pandemic has made diversity among different student groups more explicit and what implications this holds for the globalisation of higher education A range of methodologies was adopted including qualitative case studies and interviews and quantitative e.g. surveys The book draws on both strategic frameworks and research projects to provide new perspectives on how internationalization plays out especially linking strategies with human impacts

Marxist Historiographies Q. Edward Wang, Georg G. Iggers, 2015-07-16 Marxist Historiographies is the first book to examine the ebb and flow of Marxist historiography from a global and cross cultural perspective Since the eighteenth century few schools of historical thought have exerted a more lasting impact than Marxism and this impact extends far beyond the Western world within which it is most commonly analysed Edited by two highly respected authors in the field this book deals with the effect of Marxism on historical writings not only in parts of Europe where it originated but also in countries and regions in Africa Asia North and South America and the Middle East Rather than presenting the chapters geographically it is structured with respect to how Marxist influence was shown in the works of historians in a particular area This title takes a dual approach to the subject some chapters are national in scope addressing the Marxist impact on historical practices within a country whereas others deal with the varied expressions of Marxist historiography throughout a wider region Taking a truly global perspective on this topic Marxist Historiographies demonstrates clearly the breadth and depth of Marxism's influence in historical writing throughout the world and is essential reading for all students of historiography
