The African Book

Publishing Record ,2007 Identities in Transition Paige Arthur,2010-12-13 In many societies histories of exclusion racism and nationalist violence often create divisions so deep that finding a way to deal with the atrocities of the past seems nearly impossible These societies face difficult practical questions about how to devise new state and civil society institutions that will respond to massive or systematic violations of human rights recognize victims and prevent the recurrence of abuse

Identities in Transition Challenges for Transitional Justice in Divided Societies brings together a rich group of international researchers and practitioners who for the first time examine transitional justice through an identity lens They tackle ways that transitional justice can act as a means of political learning across communities foster citizenship trust and recognition and break down harmful myths and stereotypes as steps toward meeting the difficult challenges for transitional justice in divided societies Resources in Education ,1996-06 ERIC Educational Documents Index Educational Resources Information Center (U.S.),1966 A subject author institution index which provides titles and accession numbers to the document and report literature that was announced in the monthly issues of Resources in education earlier called Research in education English-Medium Instruction at Universities Aintzane Doiz,David Lasagabaster,Juan Manuel Sierra,2012-10-25 This book provides critical insights into the English medium instruction EMI experiences which have been implemented at a number of universities in countries such as China Finland Israel the Netherlands South Africa Spain and the USA which are characterised by differing political cultural and sociolinguistic situations In particular it reflects on the consequences of implementing EMI as an attempt to gain visibility and as a strategy in response to the need to become competitive in both national and international markets The pitfalls and challenges specific to each setting are analysed and the pedagogical issues and methodological implications that arise from the implementation of these programmes are also discussed This volume will serve to advance our awareness about the strategies and tools needed to improve EMI at tertiary level ERIC Educational Documents Index, 1966-1969: Minor descriptors. Author index CCM Information Corporation,1970 ERIC Educational Documents Index, 1966-69: Major descriptors ,1970 Tests in Print II Oscar Krisen Buros,1974 Research in Education ,1969-05 Textbooks for Diverse Learners Carolyn McKinney,2005 Child Youth and Family Development Research Programme New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State)., The First Year at School: An International Perspective Peter Tymms,Tiago Bartholo,Sarah Howie,Elena Kardanova,Mariane Campelo Koslinski,Christine Merrell,Helen Wildy,2023-06-26 This book explores an under researched but vital part of education the first year at primary elementary school The work shows that children s progress varies enormously from school to school class to class and child to child This variation is important because the more progress that children make in that first year of school the higher their academic attainment at the end of compulsory schooling The iPIPS international Performance Indicators in Primary Schools project upon which this book is based has been able to provide deeper insights into some of the key issues within and across different contexts whilst highlighting new and some ongoing issues Despite all the work there remain unanswered or new puzzling issues which are also explored We need to know how to improve the education at that stage and more broadly we need greater clarity about when children should be taught to read and be introduced to formal arithmetic in other words when they should start school We also need to be clearer about whether when and how young children should be assessed The book will suggest some answers but it will raise important questions and dilemmas for which we do not as yet have answers More Than Brothers Hein Willemse, 2000 Peter Clarke and James Matthews were born within days of each other Clarke on 2 June 1929 in a stone cottage overlooking False Bay Matthews eight days earlier across Table Mountain in a Bo Kaap tenement building facing the city bowl These two boys from similar backgrounds grew into young men before they met and formed a friendship that would last a lifetime They became almost more than brothers Yet they are complete opposites Clarke is characterized by his dignified reserve and meticulous order Matthews by his forthrightness and bohemian disorder Over a period of more than forty years both became well known in their respective disciplines Clarke became a poet short story writer and primarily a painter Matthews started out writing short stories and novels before establishing himself as the dispatcher of raging Black Consciousness poetry This book is a tribute to two fiercely independent artists It is liberally illustrated with the work of both artists in b w and color photographs The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing, Volume II: Education Helga R. Gudmundsdottir, Carol Beynon, Karen Ludke, Annabel J. Cohen, 2020-05-19 The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing Volume II Education examines the many methods and motivations for vocal pedagogy promoting singing not just as an art form arising from the musical instrument found within every individual but also as a means of communication with social psychological and didactic functions Presenting research from myriad fields of study beyond music including psychology education sociology computer science linguistics physiology and neuroscience the contributors address singing in three parts Learning to Sing Naturally Formal Teaching of Singing Using Singing to Teach In 2009 the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada funded a seven year major collaborative research initiative known as Advancing Interdisciplinary Research in Singing AIRS Together global researchers from a broad range of disciplines addressed three challenging questions How does singing develop in every human being How should singing be taught and used to teach How does singing impact wellbeing Across three volumes The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing consolidates the findings of each of these three questions defining the current state of theory and research in the field Volume II Education focuses on the second question and offers an invaluable resource for anyone who identifies as a singer wishes to become a singer works with singers or is interested in the application of singing for the purposes of education
