American Lit Remixed Melissa J. Strong, 2021-04-30 American Lit Remixed identifies a new sound in literature emerging after the digital revolution. It reads works by Jennifer Egan, Sherman Alexie and others through the lenses of remix theory. The term Eduardo Navas coined to describe the remix as a form of artistic and cultural discourse and the music industry's preoccupations with nostalgia and authenticity arguing that digital age fiction, poetry and drama remix the music and technology of the past to offer new modes of connecting to self, others and place. Musical features such as references to popular songs, structural similarities to music recordings and thematic treatment of the riffing and borrowing endemic within popular music lend a retro sound feel and structure to contemporary American texts even when they refer to life in the digital era. Through engaging with the musical past, literature resists nostalgia and remixes the twenty-first century's dystopian disconnected ethos to find possibility and hope for the future. Critics often focus on technology's negative impact on the music industry but American Lit Remixed emphasizes music as a source of creative potential in twenty-first century literature including new ways of storytelling and relating.

Differentiating Instruction With Menus for the Inclusive Classroom Laurie E. Westphal, 2021-09-03 Differentiating Instruction With Menus for the Inclusive Classroom Language Arts for grades 6-8 offers teachers who have multiple ability levels in one classroom everything they need to create a student-centered learning environment based on choice. For each topic covered, there are two menus that look similar but contain differentiated content: one menu for students working on grade level and the other for students working below grade level. Using the creative, challenging choices found in Tic Tac Toe menus, List menus, 2-5-8 menus and Game Show menus, students will demonstrate their knowledge with unique, exciting products. Also included are specific guidelines for products, assessment rubrics and teacher introduction pages for each menu. These menus can also be used in conjunction with the Differentiating Instruction With Menus series for students working above grade level for three tiers of complementary menus, Grades 6-8.

Rock Music in American Fiction Writing, 1966-2011 Martin Moling,2021-09-20 Can rock music help us understand literature Rock Music in American Fiction Writing 1966 2011 argues that a close analysis of the rock music incorporated into a literary text an investigation of the lyrics a musicological exploration of the sounds and rhythms a cultural historical inquiry into the production and reception of a song may yield exciting new insight into and expand our understanding of American literary production from the mid 20th century onwards Reading major works by Joyce Carol Oates Alice Walker Don DeLillo Jeffrey Eugenides Sherman Alexie and Jennifer Egan from such a rock musicological vantage point Rock Music in American Fiction Writing adds a new dimension to recent work in American literary criticism by seeking to establish rock music as an analytical tool for literary investigation The book concentrates on the way these literary artists have struggled to come to terms with the dichotomies inherent in rock music its liberating and revolutionary impulses as well as its adherence to the bleakest laws of consumer capitalism in their work By combining a musicological with a literary analysis Rock Music in American Fiction Writing highlights the crucial and complex role rock music has played in shaping the artistic outlook and cultural sensibilities of literary artists since the 1960s in America and beyond

Symbolism 15 Rüdiger Ahrens,Klaus Stierstorfer,2015-10-16 While paratexts among them headnotes footnotes or endnotes have never been absent from American literature the last two decades have seen an explosion of the phenomenon including mock scholarly footnotes to an extent that they seem to take over the text itself In this Special Focus we shall attempt to find the reasons for this astonishing development In our first diachronic section we shall explore such texts as might have fostered the present boom from fictions by Edgar Allan Poe to Vladimir Nabokov to Mark Z Danielewski The second synchronic section will concentrate on paratexts by David Foster Wallace perhaps the father of the post postmodern footnote as well as those to be found in novels by Bennett Sims Jennifer Egan and Junot Diaz among others It appears that while paratexts definitely point to a high degree of self reflexivity in the author they equally draw attention to the textual and authorial functions of the works in which they exist They can thus cause a reflection on the boundaries between genres like fiction faction and autobiography as well as serving to highlight a host of pedagogical and social concerns that exist in the interstices between fiction and reality
