

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Resources in Education, 1984 covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Twenty Years After Communism Michael H. Bernhard, Jan Kubik, 2014 While the fall of the Berlin Wall is positively commemorated in the West the intervening years have shown that the former Soviet Bloc has a more complicated view of its legacy In post communist Eastern Europe the way people remember state socialism is closely intertwined with the manner in which they envision historical justice Twenty Years After Communism is concerned with the explosion of a politics of memory triggered by the fall of state socialism in Eastern Europe and it takes a comparative look at the ways that communism and its demise have been commemorated or not commemorated by major political actors across the region The book is built on three premises The first is that political actors always strive to come to terms with the history of their communities in order to generate a sense of order in their personal and collective lives Second new leaders sometimes find it advantageous to mete out justice on the politicians of abolished regimes and whether and how they do so depends heavily on their interpretation and assessment of the collective past Finally remembering the past particularly collectively is always a political process thus the politics of memory and commemoration needs to be studied as an integral part of the establishment of new collective identities and new principles of political legitimacy Each chapter takes a detailed look at the commemorative ceremony of a different country of the former Soviet Bloc Collectively the book looks at patterns of extrication from state socialism patterns of ethnic and class conflict the strategies of communist successor parties and the cultural traditions of a given country that influence the way official collective memory is constructed Twenty Years After Communism develops a new analytical and explanatory framework that helps readers to understand the utility of historical memory as an important and understudied part of democratization Documentation Abstracts ,1997 The Publisher ,1919 The Americana Frederick Converse Beach, George Edwin Rines, 1911 The Economist ,1865
