Art, Agency and the Continued Assault on Authorship Simon Blond, 2022-10-31 This book presents a counter history to the relentless critique of the humanist subject and authorial agency that has taken place over the past fifty years It is both an interrogation of that critique and the tracing of an alternative narrative from Romanticism to the twenty first century which celebrates the agency of the artist as a powerful contribution to the wellbeing of the community It does so through arguments based on philosophical aesthetics and cultural theory interspersed with case histories of particular artists It also engages with a second issue that cannot be separated from the first This is the question of what the role and purpose of art is in society This has become particularly important since the 1990s because of the social turn in art in which it is claimed that the only valid role for art was one that had explicit social consequences This book argues that a political role for art is valuable but not the only one that can be envisaged nor indeed is it the most obvious or most important Art has other social roles both as a means to engender empathy and community and to re enchant a world bereft of meaning and reduced to material values The book will appeal to practising artists as well as scholars working in art history philosophy aesthetics and curatorial studies

Post-Exceptionalism Arne De Boever, 2025-01-31 Postmodernism has come and gone but the belief that artists and works of art are exceptional is alive and well Post Exceptionalism speculates that this is so because postmodernism when it declared the death of the author and celebrated the copy failed to name political theology as its fundamental target In a time when sovereignty is experiencing a dubious global revival the moment has come to reconsider the artist and the work of art after political theology in search for a new worldly and emancipatory politics of aesthetics

Subject, Society and Culture Roy Boyne, 2008-03-25 This is a highly original indeed an extraordinary book standing out among the conventional philosophical treatments of subjectivity and reaching beyond the conventional area of investigation Boyne's feat is to find overlooked and unexplored angles which recast one of the perennial and ostensibly thoroughly familiar philosophical issues in a novel and fascinating light Zygmunt Bauman This book explores the relationships between visual culture social theory and the individual Visual culture has emerged as a central area of debate and research in contemporary sociology yet the field is still underdefined In particular the relationship between visual culture and the individual remains obscure Sociologists have insisted that all aspects of the individual are open to sociological explanation The result is that the individual sometimes seems to have been theorized away from sociological understanding Using a wide range of resources from Bourdieu's action theory and the contribution of actor network theory through to the artistic explorations of Francis Bacon and Barnett Newman this book shows how the concept of the individual is being reconstructed

Koons Stories of New York City's fabled art scene conjure up artists' lofts in SoHo, studios in Brooklyn, and block after block of galleries in Chelsea. But today no artist can afford a SoHo loft. Brooklyn has long gentrified, and even the galleries of Chelsea are beginning to move on. Art on the Block takes the reader on a journey through the neighborhoods that shape and are shaped by New York's ever-evolving art world. Based on interviews with over 150 gallery directors as well as the artists themselves, art historian and cultural commentator Ann Fensterstock explores the genesis, expansion, maturation, and ultimate restless migration of the New York art world from one initially undiscovered neighborhood to the next. Opening with the colonization of the desolate South Houston Industrial District in the late 1960s, the book follows the art world's subsequent elopements to the East Village in the 80s, Brooklyn in the mid 90s, Chelsea at the beginning of the new millennium, and most recently to the Lower East Side. With a look to the newest neighborhoods that artists are just now beginning to occupy, this is a must read for both art enthusiasts as well as anyone with a passion for New York City. Geneses of Postmodern Art Paul Crowther, 2018-09-03 Postmodernism in the visual arts is not just another ism. It emerged in the 1960s as a transformation of artistic creativity inspired by Duchamp's idea that the artwork does not have to be physically made by its creator. Products of mass culture and technology can be used just as well as traditional media. This idea became influential because of a widespread naturalization of technology where technology becomes something lived in, as well as used. Postmodern art embodies this attitude. To explain why Paul Crowther investigates topics such as eclecticism, the sublime, deconstruction in art, and philosophy, and Paolozzi's Wittgenstein-inspired works. Jean-Michel Basquiat Leonhard Emmerling, 2003 Starting as an enigmatic street graffiti artist in New York in the late 1970s, Jean-Michel Basquiat went on to become the shooting star of the art world before succumbing to a drug overdose in 1988. This is his story. Workmanship Klaus-Dieter Weiss, 2012-12-13 today the name RKW Architektur + St dtbau evokes two hundred architects whose work never fails to convince. The reason does not lie in the narrowly defined architectural language of individual leaders of the firm. More than in any other firm, the various teams are given generous latitude for independent initiative. Thus, this documentation of the last ten years, with cross references to the development of this unique partnership since 1950, doesn't just present sixty-five structures and projects from an internationally sought-after firm. On the contrary, in its search for the secret of the firm's success, it looks behind the scenes in numerous interviews and essays. The works considered range from the research facilities for AUDI, the new sciences campus of RWTH Aachen University, and the corporate headquarters of Vodafone, Debitel, and Arag, to urban revitalization projects, residential buildings, schools, sports halls, railroad stations, city halls, banks, urban office buildings, and shopping centers, and the stadium for the 2012 European Soccer Championship in Gdansk.
