Barbara Bush,Crystal Renee Chambers,Mary Beth Walpole,2023-07-12 This volume is designed to illuminate the educational experiences of Black women from the time they earn their high school diplomas through graduate study with a particular focus on their doctoral studies by exploring the commonalities and the uniqueness of their individual paths and challenges The chapters of this volume newly identify key factors and experiences that shape Black women s engagement or disengagement with higher education The original research presented here using an array of theoretical lenses as well as qualitative and quantitative methods not only deepens our understanding of the experiences of African American women in the academy but also seeks to strengthen the academic pipeline not only for the benefit of those who may have felt disenfranchised in the past but for all students The contributors eschew the deficit focused approach that implies a lack of social and cultural capital based on prior educational experiences adopted by many studies of non dominant groups in education and instead focus on the strengths and experiences of their subjects Among their findings is the identification of the social capital that Black women are given and actively acquire in their pre collegiate years that enable them to gain greater returns on their educational investments than their male peers The book further describes the assistance and the interference African American women receive from their peers during their transition to college and how peer interactions shape their early college experiences and influence subsequent persistence decisions Whether studying how Black women in the social and natural sciences navigate through this often rocky terrain or uncovering the extent to which African American women doctoral students access postsecondary education through community colleges and their special needs for more mentoring and advising support this book provides researchers and graduate students with rich information on how to successfully engage and succeed in the doctoral process It also demonstrates to women faculty and administrators how they can become better navigators guides and advocates for the African American women who come after them

Conning Harvard Julie Zauzmer, Xi Yu, 2013-09-03 In 2011 a 24 year old man pled guilty to falsifying his application to Harvard University bilking the world's most prestigious university out of more than 45 000 in prizes and scholarships Using forged SAT scores transcripts and letters of recommendation Adam Wheeler outsmarted Harvard's admissions office and then went even further Once accepted into the Ivy League he kept lying cheating and succeeding winning thousands of dollars in prizes and grants But then he shot too far During his senior year Wheeler applied for Rhodes and Fulbright scholarships a gamble that finally exposed his extensive tangle of lies Alerted that he was under suspicion Wheeler fled Harvard but did not stop He successfully filed more fraudulent applications at top tier schools across the country until some vigilant admissions officers Massachusetts police and even his own parents forced him off his computer and into court As reporters for The Harvard Crimson Julie Zauzmer and Xi Yu covered the case from the moment the news of Wheeler's indictment broke In the course of their reporting they interviewed dozens of friends roommates teachers and advisors who knew Wheeler at the many phases of his suspect academic career Their fascinating account reveals how one serial scammer took on the competitive world of the Ivy League and almost won
