

You use the informal letter layout when writing to a friend or a member of your family.

Your address in the top right-hand corner of the page.

15 Your Road,
Your Town,
Your County.
AU44 6NE

24th September, 2010

The date is written here.

There's no need to put the other person's address in an informal letter.

The name of the person you are writing to.

Dear Jimmy,

This is where the content of your letter goes. You can write as if you're talking to your friend. You can even use slang.

Don't forget you still need to write in paragraphs.

How you sign off depends on how you feel about the person. It could be:

Yours truly,
Yours,
Love,
Best wishes,

Love,

Your name.

Sarah

Making a Point David Crystal, 2015-10-06 The final volume in the classic trilogy on the English language combines the first history of English punctuation with a complete guide on how to use it Behind every punctuation mark lies a thousand stories The punctuation of English marked with occasional rationality is founded on arbitrariness and littered with oddities For a system of a few dozen marks it generates a disproportionate degree of uncertainty and passion inspiring organizations like the Apostrophe Protection Society and sending enthusiasts correction pens in hand in a crusade against error across the United States Professor Crystal leads us through this minefield with characteristic wit clarity and commonsense In Making a Point he gives a fascinating account of the origin and progress of every kind of punctuation mark over one and a half millennia and offers sound advice on how punctuation may be used to meet the needs of every occasion and context
