Lesbian Communities Esther D Rothblum, Penny Sablove, 2014-06-11 I had just witnessed women who shingled their own roofs drove eighteen wheeler trucks and built their own houses as well as kept them clean and cooked a damn good meal On women s land I am a first class citizen I m treated as an equal I now see the world with righteous anger and hope Living in womyn s community has provided that lens for me Elizabeth Sturru third wave feminist One of the driving forces in the lives of many lesbians is the search for community in a society that favors heterosexuality and often turns a cold shoulder toward women who love women Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet takes you inside flourishing lesbian communities physical spiritual and virtual online that provide practical help emotional support and much needed outlets for creative expression Exploring communities functioning in harmony with general American society as well as separatist groups festival communities which form for short times annually and informal online groups offering meaningful communication to physically isolated lesbians this book offers a ray of light to those whose search is still ongoing It also provides much needed analysis of the current state of lesbian communities some decades old now for educators researchers and social scientists In Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet Susan Krieger revisits the vibrant community she first explored in The Mirror Dance An African American member of Old Lesbians Organizing for Change shares the details of her search for a cooperative caring space for aging lesbians and what led to her eventual decision to create this space herself And one of the founders of Hallomas a back to the land community that has survived in northern California since the late 1970s reflects on that unique community s birth and life with 13 photographs and illustrations The book also bears witness to a life changing encounter and dialogue between second wave feminists from the woman s land collective of Arcadia and third wave feminists You ll also learn about the birth joys and tribulations of an online community that becomes physical each year at the Michigan Womyn s Music Festival the accidental birth of a lesbian community in isolated and fundamentalist dominated West Texas the international online lesbian parenting community called MOMS affectionately known as Dykes and Tykes how it began what belonging to this community provides for its members and a look toward the future the debate on inclusiveness versus exclusiveness of bisexual women transgender people and the male children of lesbians in lesbian communities the current decline of availability and dilution of the purity of lesbian only space and the rise of segregation by social class and financial status and oppression within the lesbian community the current plight of lesbian bookstores which since the 1970s have served not only as gateways to a multitude of lesbian communities but as the centers of lesbian communities themselves the online experience of lesbians searching for community in Japan the issues facing Jewish lesbians and the formation of Nice Jewish Girls a Montreal group for anyone who identifies as a lesbian bisexual or queer woman and their non Jewish partners and friends the power of myth and mythmaking to help women regain lost strength and reclaim lost history From the efforts of back to the land groups creating wimmin s space to life in modern residential retirement settings

this book explores the places created by and for lesbians Photos and illustrations bring these women and their communities to life Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet w

Lesbians, Gays, and the Empowerment Perspective

Carol T. Tully,2000-07-03 The most comprehensive resource to date on the methods of empowerment with lesbian and gay clients this book explores the history and politics of gay identity and explains the basis and development of the empowerment approach in social work practice in the United States After analyzing the different types of homophobia individual institutional and internalized and how these are manifested in real life situations Tully addresses the special needs and issues particular to three age groups gay and lesbian youth adults and older clients The author offers practical applications for the social worker and client at the micro mezzo and macro levels from helping a teenage client to discover a personal sexual orientation micro to organizing a social event for lesbians and gays mezzo to building a community coalition macro Eye opening case studies are provided for each age group and cover everything from defining problems identifying the underlying issues causing them understanding the role of homophobia and the application of the empowerment perspective

Internet Lesbian and Gay Television Series, 1996-2014 Vincent Terrace,2015-05-23 Created around the world and available only on the Web internet television series are independently produced mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers Typically financed through crowd funding they are filmed with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews and viewers find them through word of mouth or by chance The third of five volumes on Internet TV series this book covers 335 alphabetically arranged gay and lesbian programs 1996 2014 giving casts credits story lines episode descriptions websites dates and commentary A complete index lists program titles and headings for gay lesbian bi sexual transgender and drag queen shows Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives Marilyn Farwell,1996 What is lesbian literature Must it contain overtly lesbian characters and portray them in a positive light Must the author be overtly or covertly lesbian Does there have to be a lesbian theme and must it be politically acceptable Marilyn Farwell here examines the work of such writers as Adrienne Rich Marion Zimmer Bradley Jeanette Winterson Gloria Naylor and Marilyn Hacker to address these questions Dividing their writings into two genres the romantic story and the heroic or quest story Farwell addresses some of the most problematic issues at the intersection of literature sex gender and postmodernism Illustrating how the generational conflict between the lesbian feminists of twenty years ago and the queer theorists of today stokes the critical fires of contemporary lesbian and literary theory Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives concludes by arguing for a broad and generous definition of lesbian writing

Bisexuality and the Challenge to Lesbian Politics

Paula C Rust,1995-10-01 The subject of bisexuality continues to divide the lesbian and gay community At pride marches in films such as Go Fish at academic conferences the role and status of bisexuals is hotly contested Within lesbian communities formed to support lesbians in a patriarchal and heterosexist society bisexual women are often perceived as a threat or as a political weakness Bisexual women feel that they are regarded with suspicion and distrust if not openly scorned Drawing on her research with over 400 bisexual and lesbian women surveying the treatment of bisexuality in the lesbian and gay press and examining the recent growth of a self consciously political bisexual movement Paula Rust addresses a range of questions pertaining to the political and social relationships between lesbians and bisexual women By tracing the roots of the controversy over bisexuality among lesbians back to the early lesbian feminist debates of the 1970s Rust argues that those debates created the circumstances in which bisexuality became an inevitable challenge to lesbian politics She also traces it forward predicting the future of sexual politics

What a Lesbian Looks Like National Lesbian and Gay Survey (Organization),1992 The National Lesbian and Gay Survey is a mass observation project set up in 1985 to record the experience of lesbians and gay men This work draws on that material to provide an anthology of personal writings from lesbians from all walks of life which offers a picture of lesbian life in general

Spinsters and Lesbians Trisha Franzen,1996 Americans have long held fast to a rigid definition of womanhood revolving around husband home and children Women who rebelled against this definition and carved out independent lives for themselves have often been rendered invisible in U S history In this unusual comparative study Trisha Franzen brings to light the remarkable lives of two generations of autonomous women Progressive Era spinsters and mid twentieth century lesbians While both groups of women followed similar paths to independence separating from their families pursuing education finding work and creating woman centered communities they faced different material and cultural challenge and came to claim very different identities Many of the turn of the century women were prominent during their time from internationally recognized classicist Edith Hamilton through two early Directors of the Women s Bureau Mary Anderson and Freida Miller Maturing during the time of a broad and powerful women s movement they were among that era s new women the often single women who were viewed as in the vanguard of women s struggle for equality In contrast never married women after World War II especially lesbians were considered beyond the pale of real womanhood Before the women s and gay lesbian liberation movements they had no positive contemporary images of alternative lives for women Highlighting the similarities and differences between women oriented women confronting changing gender and sexuality systems Spinsters and Lesbians thus traces a continuum among women who constructed lives outside institutionalized heterosexuality

What a Lesbian Looks Like National Lesbian and Gay Survey,2005-06-29 The National Lesbian and Gay Survey is a mass observation project set up in 1985 to record the experience of lesbians and gay men Since that time lesbian and gay volunteers have provided accounts on a wide range of issues pertinent to lesbian and gay life What a Lesbian Looks Like draws on this material to provide an anthology of personal writings from lesbians nationwide The volunteers come from all walks of life from the unemployed to holders of high powered jobs and represent all age groups All aspects of lesbian experience are covered including first sexual encounters long term relationships the difficulties of coming out and Clause 28 This book should be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates and academics in the fields of women s studies gender studies and cultural studies

The Advocate ,1995-04-18 The

Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Myth of the Modern Homosexual Rictor Norton, 2016-10-06 With careful reasoning supported by wide ranging scholarship this study exposes the fallacies of social constructionist theories within lesbian and gay studies and makes a forceful case for the autonomy of queer identity and culture It presents evidence that queers are part of a centuries old history possessing a unified historical and cultural identity The volume reviews the fundamental historiographical issues about the nature of queer history arguing that a new generation of queer historians will need to abandon authoritarian dogma founded upon politically correct ideology rather than historical experience Norton offers a clear exposition of the evidence for ancient indigenous and pre modern queer cultural continuity revealing how knowledge of that history has been suppressed and censored and sets out the queer cultural essentialist position on the key topics of queer history role identity bisexuality orientation linguistics social control homophobia subcultures and kinship patterns
