Radio Division, 1920 Country Guide and Northwest Farmer, 1928 The New Legal Realism: Volume 2 Heinz Klug, Sally Engle Merry, 2016-05-03 This is the second of two volumes announcing the emergence of the new legal realism. At a time when the legal academy is turning to social science for new approaches, these volumes chart a new course for interdisciplinary research by synthesizing law on the ground, empirical research, and theory. Volume 2 explores the integration of global perspectives and information into our understanding of law. Increasingly, local experiences of law are informed by broader interactions of national, international, and global law. Lawyers, judges, and other legal actors often have to respond to these broader contexts, while those pursuing justice in various global contexts must wrestle with the specific problems of translation that emerge when different concepts of law and local circumstances interact. Using empirical research, the authors in this path-breaking volume shed light on current developments in law at a global level. Atrocity Speech Law Gregory S. Gordon, 2017 This book is the first comprehensive study of the international law encompassing hate speech. Prof.

Gordon provides a broad analysis of the entire jurisprudential output related to speech and gross human rights violations for courts government officials and scholars The book is organized into three parts The first part covers the foundation a brief history of atrocity speech and the modern treatment of hate speech in international human rights treaties and judgments under international criminal tribunals The second part focuses on fragmentation detailing the inconsistent application of the charges and previous prosecutions including certain categories of inflammatory speech and a growing doctrinal rift between the ICTR and ICTY The last part covers fruition recommendations on how the law should be developed going forward with proposals to fix the problems with individual speech offenses to coalesce into three categories of offense incitement speech abetting and instigation
