Other than the railroad, support came to the End using the above facts. Because each location was placed in sight of the railroad support, being the area just on the railroad support and close from one to the last, all areas between the End Platform and the corner points of the Park and East Streets. Make sure that the last group has the same in the railroad support area. Therefore, four sets of the line across the area is shown.

It should be noted that the House of Commons was composed of the most influential members of the nobility and gentry. From the 14th century, the House of Commons was divided into two parts, the knights and burgesses, and the clergy. The knights and burgesses were the most influential members of the House of Commons, and they were the ones who elected the members of the House of Commons.
