Corpora in Interpreting Studies Andrew K.F. Cheung,Kanglong Liu,Riccardo Moratto,2023-12-01 Cheung Liu Moratto and their contributors examine how corpora can be effectively harnessed to benefit interpreting practice and research in East Asian settings In comparison to the achievements made in the field of corpus based translation studies the use of corpora in interpreting is not comparable in terms of scope methods and agenda One of the predicaments that hampers this line of inquiry is the lack of systematic corpora to document spoken language This issue is even more pronounced when dealing with East Asian languages such as Chinese Japanese and Korean which are typologically different from European languages As language plays a pivotal role in interpreting research the use of corpora in interpreting within East Asian contexts has its own distinct characteristics as well as methodological constraints and concerns However it also generates new insights and findings that can significantly advance this research field A valuable resource for scholars of scholars focusing on corpus interpreting particularly those dealing with East Asian languages
