Lee,2021-06-17 The years between 1850 and 1930 witnessed the first large scale migration of peoples from East Asia and South Asia to North America and the emergence of the US as an imperial power in the Pacific This period also produced the first instances of Asian North American writing theater and film This exciting collection examines how the many literary and cultural works from this period approached questions of migration exclusion and identity Covering an extensive ranges of topics including anticolonialist writing the erotics of queer modernist poetry interracial desire and the racial gaze in silent film the book shows the diverse and multi ethnic nature of literary and cultural production at a crucial period in modern formations of race as well as literary and cultural aesthetics New Jews David L. study of American Jewish identity in Hollywood movies of the new millennium Despite the argument that we live in a post racial society with supposedly new Jewish characters emerging on the big screen this book details how traditional racial stereotypes of American Jews persist in popular films from the first decade of this century In clear and readable prose the book offers an innovative and penetrating look at dozens of American Jewish meddling matriarchs neurotic nebbishes pampered princesses and scheming scumbags from 21st century film whether Hollywood blockbusters like Meet the Fockers and Sex and the City or indie favorites like Garden State and Kissing Jessica Stein Throughout the book famous American Jewish characters played by the likes of Jim Carrey Tom Cruise Anne Hathaway Kate Hudson Scarlett Johansson Sarah Jessica Parker Adam Sandler and Ben Stiller are discussed with the ultimate conclusion that movies today are marked less by the emergence of new Jews than by the continued but dynamic and transformed presence of the same old stereotypes in cities such as Naples and Rome appeared to be a lurid affair where the black market reigned supreme and prostitution was the norm Informed by the historical context as well as by their respective traditions these texts become more than mirrors of the encounter or generic allegories Instead they are sites in which to explore repressed traumas that inform how the occupation unfolded and is remembered including the Holocaust the American Civil War and European colonialism as well as individual traumatic events like the massacre of the Fosse Ardeatine and the mass civilian rape near Rome by colonial soldiers
