Playing for time Geraldine Cousin, 2013-07-19 Playing for time explores connections between theatre time the historical moment and fictional time Geraldine Cousin persuasively argues that a crucial characteristic of contemporary British theatre is its preoccupation with instability and danger and traces images of catastrophe and loss in a wide range of recent plays and productions The diversity of the texts that are examined is a major strength of the book In addition to plays by contemporary dramatists Cousin analyses staged adaptations of novels and productions of plays by Euripides Strindberg and Priestley A key focus is Stephen Daldry's award winning revival of Priestley's An Inspector Calls which is discussed in relation both to other Priestley time plays and to Caryl Churchill's apocalyptic Far Away Lost children are a recurring motif Bryony Lavery's Frozen for example is explored in the context of the Soham murders which took place while the play was in production at the National Theatre whilst three virtually simultaneous productions of Euripides Hecuba are interpreted with regard to the Beslan massacre of schoolchildren Survival Is a Style Christian Wiman, 2020-02-04 Named as a 2020 Book of the Year by The Times Literary Supplement Survival Is a Style Christian Wiman's first collection of new poems in six years may be his best book yet His many readers will recognize the musical and formal variety the voice that can be tender and funny credibly mystical and savagely skeptical But there are many new notes in this collection as well including a moving elegy to the poet's father sharp observations and distillations of modern American life and rangy poems that merge and juxtapose different modes of speech and thought The cumulative effect is extraordinary Reading Survival Is a Style one has the sense one is encountering work that will become a permanent part of American literature
