

4. Pip, on more than one occasion felt that he was about to be discovered.

Elaborate

When Mr. Pumblechook and Mr. Woble were at Pip's house having their Christmas lunch, Pip was scared that his sister would discover the missing meat pie and the brandy which he took in order to give them to the convict. He was about to be discovered on more than one occasion when she gave Mr. Pumblechook a glass of brandy, he spat it once he drank it, just then Pip figured out that he put Mrs. Joe's strongest medicine in the brandy instead of water, then when she was about to bring the meat pie, Pip knew that he had to leave, just then he met some soldiers at the door.

5. "Keep still, you little devil, or I'll cut your throat."

Comment

The convict said these words to Pip at the churchyard when he was visiting his parent's grave. A convict with chains appeared suddenly from the manholes and threatened Pip not to shout or to tell anyone about him, then he asked Pip to get him a file and some food. He threatened to kill the small child if he shouted or told anyone about him otherwise he would bring his cruel friend who are small children's hearts. That shows that the convict was a frightening man and how Pip was scared of him.

6. "Tell me immediately what you've been doing to wear me away with fear and worry, or I'd have you out of that corner if you were 50 Pips, and he was 500 Gargons."

Comment

Mrs. Joe said these words to Pip when he came back home from the marches after he had met the convict. Mrs. Joe was such a tough woman to both him and her husband Joe. She always reminded Pip that if it wasn't for her, he would have been dead just like their parents. She treated Pip in a very cruel way. He was isolated, abused and treated in an unfair way as if it was his guilt that he was born as an orphan. That shows how the relationship between Pip and Mrs. Joe looked like and he was affected by his sister's treatment to both him and Joe.
