Immigration Tests The New Order Sassen:

Territoriality and Migration in the E.U. Neighbourhood Margaret Walton-Roberts, Jenna Hennebry, 2013-08-16 This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars around an important question how has migration changed in Europe as the European Union has enlarged and what are the consequences for countries and for migrants themselves inside and outside of these redrawn jurisdictional and territorial borders By addressing this question the book contributes to three current debates with respect to EU migration management 1 that recent developments in EU migration management represent a profound spatial and organizational reconfiguration of the regional governance of migration 2 the trend towards the externalization or subcontracting of migration control and 3 how the implications of Europe's changing immigration policy are increasingly felt across the European neighborhood and beyond Based on new empirical research the authors in this collection explore these three processes and their consequences for both member and non member EU states for migrants themselves and for migration systems in the region The collection indicates that despite the rhetoric of social and spatial integration across the EU region as one wall has come down new walls have gone up as novel migration and security policy frameworks have been erected making European immigration more complex and potentially more influential beyond the EU zone than ever

Progress Or Collapse Roberto De Vogli, 2013 In Progress or Collapse Roberto De Vogli guides us through the multiple converging global crises of economic progress He explores the connections between the environmental crisis and the psychological social cultural political and economic emergencies affecting modern societies It is not a coincidence the author argues that global ecological destruction is occurring in tandem with other crises rising mental disorders mindless consumerism rampant conformism status competition civic disengagement startling social inequalities global financial instability and widespread political impasse

Losing Control? Saskia Sassen, 1996 This work looks at the way in which the new global economy works examining its effect on the power and legitimacy of individual states It argues that national sovereignty has not eroded but states have begun to reconfigure to decide where their resonance

Religion and Conflict in South and Southeast Asia Linell E. Cady, Sheldon W. Simon, 2006-09-27 A major new contribution to comparative and multidisciplinary scholarship on the alignment of religion and violence in the contemporary world with a special focus on South and Southeast Asia Religion and Conflict in South and Southeast Asia shows how this region is the site of recent and emerging democracies a high degree of religious pluralism the largest Muslim populations in the world and several well organized terrorist groups making understanding of the dynamics of religious conflict and violence particularly urgent By bringing scholars from religious studies political science sociology anthropology and international relations into conversation with each other this volume brings much needed attention to the role of religion in fostering violence in the region and addresses strategies for its containment or resolution The dearth of other literature on the intersection of religion politics and violence in contemporary South and Southeast Asia makes the timing of this book particularly relevant This book will of great interest to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of Asian politics security studies and conflict studies Environment & Planning ,2010 The Border Martin Schain,2019 In our globalized world borders are back with a vengeance New data shows a massive increase of walls and barriers between countries after 2001 However at the same time the flow of people and the growth of trade have continued at impressive rates and arguments for more open borders remain relevant In The Border Martin Schain compares how and why border policy has become increasingly important politicized and divisive in both Europe and the United States Drawing from an intensive analysis of documents and interviews he argues that border control is a growing international movement In Europe the European Union is under scrutiny and many countries seek to block the entry of asylum seekers from wars in the Near East In the US Donald Trump pledged to build a wall along the Mexico border restricted the entry of Syrian asylum seekers and more generally tried to ban Muslim immigration Moreover on both sides of the Atlantic trade barriers appear in the political agendas of major parties Schain delves into these interlinked phenomena showing that migration identity and trade have been packaged and transformed into hotly contested issues of border governance and control Beyond Nationhood Nancy K. Cardona,2000

Sans-Papiers-Proteste und Einwanderungspolitik in Frankreich Ute Lindemann,2001-01-31 Vor dem Hintergrund der Protestaktionen irregulärer Migranten Sans papiers in Frankreich im Frühjahr 1996 und deren Entwicklung wird untersucht wie es zu solchen Protestaktionen kommen konnte und warum sie eine große Resonanz hatten Dazu werden die französische Einwanderungspolitik und die Einwanderungsgesetzgebung analysiert Weiterhin wird gezeigt wie sich die Sans papiers zu einer sozialen Bewegung etablieren konnten und wie sie ihren Protest inszeniert haben um als Issue in den Medien präsent zu sein Philippine Sociological Review ,2002 Getting Ahead Silvia Dominguez,2013-12 Honorable Mention 2014

Distinguished Contribution to Research Award presented by the Latino Sociology Section of the American Sociological Association Getting Ahead tells the compelling stories of Latin American immigrant women living in public housing in two Boston area neighborhoods Silvia Dominguez argues that these immigrant women parlay social ties that provide support and leverage to develop networks and achieve social positioning to get ahead Through a rich ethnographic account and in depth interviews the strong voices of these women demonstrate how they successfully negotiate the world and achieve social mobility through their own individual agency skillfully navigating both constraints and opportunities Dominguez makes it clear that many immigrant women are able to develop the social support needed for a rich social life and leverage ties that open options for them to develop their social and human capital However she also shows that factors such as neighborhood and domestic violence and the unavailability of social services leave many women without the ability to strategize towards social mobility Ultimately Dominguez makes important local and international policy recommendations on issue ranging from public housing to world labor visas demonstrating how policy can help to improve the lives of these and other low income people Global Capital and Peripheral Labour Ravi Raman,2010-01-21 Presents a historical account of plantations in India in the context of the modern world economy This book shows how history can assist in explaining contemporary conditions and trends It focuses on labour and economic development problems and interprets the dynamics of plantation capitalism

Borders, Mobility and Technologies of Control Sharon Pickering, Leanne Weber, 2006-09-08 Territorial borders are taking on a new significance the implications of which are relatively unexplored within the discipline of criminology This book presents the first systematic attempt to develop a critical criminology of the border and offers a unique treatment of the impact of globalisation and mobility It focuses on borders and the significance of the activities which take place on and around them For many the border is an everyday reality a space in which to live a land necessary to cross For states the border space increasingly requires protection and defence is at the centre of state ideology and performance is the site for investing significant political and material resources and is ultimately ungovernable Providing a wealth of case material from Australia Europe and North America it is for students academics and practitioners working in the areas of criminology migration human geography international law and politics globalisation sociology and cultural anthropology Borders Mobility and Technologies of Control provides a model of criminological inquiry that is global in scope constructionist in vision and capable of combining the insights of dialogic and political economic analyses into a holistic understanding of the growing conflict between nation states and multitudes This book is an important new step forward for all those who approach criminology not as an adjunct to state control but as sociological inquiry in pursuit of human justice Dr Raymond Michalowski Arizona Regents Professor Northern Arizona University USA Borders mobility and technologies of control is a radical exploration of new terrain in transnational and comparative criminology Crossing disciplinary boundaries this collection charts new forms of transgression and control in the borderlands raising new theoretical questions and topics for research Ben Bowling Professor of Criminology Criminal Justice King s College London

Labor and the Locavore Margaret Gray, 2014 Labor and the Locavore focuses on one of the most vibrant local food economies in the country the Hudson Valley that supplies New York restaurants and farmers markets Based on more than a decade s in depth interviews with workers farmers and others Gray clearly documents how the romance of small family farms serves to mask the predicament of their migrant workforce She also explores the historical roots of farmworkers substandard conditions and examines the region s shift from black to Latino workers Publisher description

Globalization, Fear and Insecurity S. Body-Gendrot, 2012-05-29 Fear is ingrained in the history of cities but our short sightedness prevents us from grasping its evolution over time Increasingly risk and fear are experienced portrayed and discussed as globalized phenomena particularly since 9 11 This research puts urban insecurity in perspective with a comparison of world cities in the North and South

Teaching Tolerance in a Globalized World Andrés Sandoval-Hernández, Maria Magdalena Isac, Daniel

Miranda,2018-04-23 This open access thematic report identifies factors and conditions that can help schools and education systems promote tolerance in a globalized world The IEA s International Civic and Citizenship Study ICCS is a comparative research program designed to investigate the ways in which young people are prepared to undertake their roles as citizens and provides a wealth of data permitting not only comparison between countries but also comparisons between schools within countries and students within countries Advanced analytical methods provide insights into relationships between students attitudes towards cultural diversity and the characteristics of the students themselves their families their teachers and school principals The rich diversity of educational and cultural contexts in the 38 countries who participated in ICCS 2009 are also acknowledged and addressed Readers interested in civic education and adolescents attitudes towards cultural diversity will find the theoretical perspectives explored engaging For readers interested in methodology the advanced analytical methods employed present textbook examples of how to address cross cultural comparability of measurement instruments and multilevel data structures in international large scale assessments ILSA Meanwhile those interested in educational policy should find the identification and comparison of malleable factors across education systems that contribute to positive student attitudes towards cultural diversity a useful and thought provoking resource Integration Requirements for Immigrants in Europe Tamar de Waal,2021-06-17 Based on legal philosophical research and informed by insights gleaned from empirical case studies this book sets out three central claims about integration requirements as conditions for attaining increased rights ie family migration permanent residency and citizenship in Europe 1 That the recent proliferation of these mandatory integration requirements is rooted in a shift towards individualised conceptions of integration 2 That this shift is counterproductive as it creates barriers to participation and inclusion for newcomers who will most likely permanently settle and is normatively problematic insofar as it produces status hierarchies between native born and immigrant citizens 3 That the remedy for this situation is a firewall that disconnects integration policy from access to rights The book draws on perspectives on immigrant integration in multiple EU Member States and includes legal and political reactions to the refugee migrant crisis The Borders of Punishment Katja Franko Aas,Mary Bosworth,2013-07-11 The Borders of Punishment Migration Citizenship and Social Exclusion critically assesses the relationship between immigration control citizenship and criminal justice It reflects on the theoretical and methodological challenges posed by mass mobility and its control and for the first time sets out a particular sub field within criminology the criminology of mobility Drawing together leading international scholars with newer researchers the book systematically outlines why criminology and criminal justice should pay more attention to issues of immigration and border control Contributors consider how traditional criminal justice institutions such as the criminal law police and prisons are being shaped and altered by immigration as well as examining novel forms of penalty such as deportation and detention facilities which have until now seldom featured in criminological studies and textbooks In so doing the book demonstrates that mobility and its control are matters that ought to be central to any understanding of the criminal justice system Phenomena such as the controversial use of immigration law for the purposes of the war on terror closed detention centres deportation and border policing raise in new ways some of the fundamental and enduring questions of criminal justice and criminology What is punishment What is crime What should be the normative and legal foundation for criminalization for police suspicion for the exclusion from the community and for the deprivation of freedom And who is the subject of rights within a society and what is the relevance of citizenship to criminal justice

Invisible Migrant Nightworkers in 24/7 London Julius-Cezar MacQuarie, 2023-08-30 This book captures the hidden labour of migrant nightworkers in 24 7 London It argues that late capitalism normalises nightwork yet refuses to recognise the associated problems from lack of decent working conditions to the seizure of the workers private time for self development family and social life The book shows how the articulation of nightworkers subjectivities and socialities happens at the intersection between migration precarity and nightwork and traces how each of these dimensions magnifies the lived experience of the others It further reveals that any possibilities for cooperation or solidarity in the workplace between migrant nightworkers become fragile and secondary to their survival of the nightshift It also elucidates the mechanisms that hinder cohesion between vulnerable groups placed temporally and socially on a different par to the mainstream societies As such this book is an excellent resource for labour regulators experts and student researchers in migration work and gender The book offers a deeply empathic and engaging portrayal of the production of disciplined and exploitable manual labor in permanent nightshift cities It cogently unpacks the experiences of embodied precarity through the largely unseen micro practices of workplaces that entrap migrant laborers The nightnographic component adds an original dimension to the inquiry Violetta Zentai Central European University
