Mian, Weishan Huang, 2013 Ecologies of Faith in New York City examines patterns of interreligious cooperation and conflict in New York City It explores how representative congregations in this religiously diverse city interact with their surroundings by competing for members seeking out niches or cooperating via coalitions and neighborhood organizations Based on in depth research in New York s ethnically mixed and rapidly changing neighborhoods the essays in the volume describe how religious institutions shape and are shaped by their environments what new roles they have assumed and how they relate to other religious groups in the community Long-Distance Nationalism in the Global City Bennett Eason Cross, 2022-08-15 Focusing on migration within the global south Bennett Eason Cross uses the example of the Malian trade diaspora in Lagos to argue that aspects of the original model of the transmigrant were based on labor migrations from global south to global north that are not representative of their south to south counterparts In Long Distance Nationalism in the Global City A Cultural History of the Malian Diaspora in Lagos Nigeria Cross notes that the cultural and racial differences between migrant communities and their host societies in Europe and the U S are often narrower or even nonexistent in south to south migrations which shapes different outcomes As this multi site case study reveals however these differences in outcome can seem counterintuitive as immigrants in the north typically develop loyalties to both origin and host nations whereas among the Malians in Lagos affinity for the host nation was virtually nonexistent despite a common regional culture He complicates the standard bilateral struggle for belonging between host and origin societies by examining the role of Islam both as a parallel transnational movement and as a competing localized form This book analyzes the deep historical structure of each society to explain the Malians failure to develop the multiple national identities observed in other diasporas Gardeners' Chronicle ,1871 Brandfaces ,2003 Circle Network News ,1998 The Mining Record [microform] ,1955 The Medical Journal of Australia ,1950 Encyclopedia of American Religions J.
