with his other concerns about what he perceived as the un Tukolor customs and practices of his sons maternal relatives in Dubayabia his friend tried unsuccessfully to talk him out of it Mawudor s grandparents also tried and failed in their own way to stop Mordibor from sending their beloved grandson away While Mordibor wanted to send his sons away to acquire Islamic and Tukolor values instead of Western education his son Mawudor on the other hand liked and dreamed about attending the white man s school and he also admired the customs and practices of his maternal relatives Even fate it seemed was not on his father s side After just two years in that Koranic school in Futa Mawudor and his brother Baba had an accident a fall in which Mawudor broke his leg When Mawudor was sent home following the accident and his father saw his broken leg he was devastated Mawudor s life it seemed had been changed Even the region of Dubayabia s most famous herbalist Mawudor s grandmother couldn t fix his broken leg to its original form Mordibor realizing how handicapped his son Mawudor had become changed his original plan and finally decided to send him to a white man s school together with his younger brothers

It Took a Broken Leg is a family story in which this author chronicles the eventful experiences of the main character Mawudor back in time through a maze of raw African tribal beliefs customs and practices characterizing his people practicing Muslims with keen interests and beliefs in secret societies spiritual devils and witchcraft
