The Vicar of Wakefield ... With a German Translation on the Same Page by Ernst Susemihl. Illustrated with Fifty Woodcuts by Ludwig Richter Oliver Goldsmith,1857 Lacuna N.R. Walker,2021-01-24 Twenty five years ago the hand of fate marked four newborns and sent them to the four corners of the Great Kingdoms They were schooled and trained as rulers of their lands in preparation for the Golden Eclipse ceremony a festival to celebrate a thousand years of peace and prosperity since the Great War Crow ruler of Northlands a skilled swordsman and expert tactician is as reclusive and stoic as the mountains that surround him Tancho has spent his life in strict discipline governing the Westlands with a fair mind and gentle hand Quiet and unassuming yet lethal in combat he is the embodiment of the waters he lives by Yet the same hand of fate unknowingly linked Tancho to Crow in ways they cannot comprehend Ruled by the stars the brother sun and the two sister moons above them and marked by an alchemical sorcery as old as time their destinies were never their own As the eclipse draws near and the festival begins word comes of another threat Invaders from unknown lands bring a war no one was prepared for and Crow and Tancho must decide on which side of the battle line they stand In life or death their destinies will see them joined either way Lacuna is a 92 000 word story of swords and sorcery action and adventure and romance

aesthetic doctrines which characterize German Romanticism A selection of literary philosophical and political essays by some of the most important German Romantic thinkers illustrates the principal themes these range from philosophical idealism and aesthetic subjectivism to folklore and emergent German nationalism from exotica and medievalism to irrationality and the metaphysics of music Introductory essays explain the significance of the particular aspects of the Romantic tradition which are revealed in each passage and commentaries not only elucidate allusions and references which are not immediately identifiable but draw attention to wider issues either in the work of that author or in the context of 19th Century German culture as a whole

Reworking the German Past Susan G. Figge, Jenifer K. Ward, 2010 Coming to terms with the past has been a preoccupation within German culture and German Studies since the Second World War In addition there has been a surge of interest in adaptation of literary works in recent years Numerous volumes have theorized chronicled or analyzed adaptations from novel to film asking how and why adaptations are undertaken and what happens when a text is adapted in a particular historical context With its focus on adaptation of twentieth century German texts not only from one medium to another but also from one cultural moment to another the present collection resides at the intersection of these two areas of inquiry The ten essays treat a variety of media Each considers the way in which a particular adaptation alters a story or history for a subsequent audience taking into account the changing context in which the retelling takes place and the evolution of cultural strategies for coming to terms with the past The resulting case studies find in the retellings potentially corrective versions of the stories for changing times The volume makes the case that adaptation studies are particularly well suited for tracing Germany's obsessive cultural engagement with its twentieth century history Contributors Elizabeth Baer Rachel Epp Buller Maria Euchner Richard C Figge Susan G Figge Mareike Hermann Linda Hutcheon Irene Lazda Cary Nathenson Thomas Sebastian Sunka Simon Jenifer K Ward Susan G Figge is Professor of German Emeritus at the College of Wooster Ohio and Jenifer K Ward is Associate Provost Cornish College of the Arts Seattle Cambridge University
