

Income 25: Pension and Annuity Subtraction

If you meet certain qualifications, you can subtract some or all of your pension and annuity income on your Colorado individual income tax return (Form 1040). You must be at least 55 years of age unless you receive pension and annuity income as a death benefit. You can claim the subtraction only for pension and annuity income that is included in your federal taxable income in the year you claim the subtraction.

Certain types of pension and annuity income may qualify for subtraction under rules other than the general pension/annuity subtraction. Other subtractions allowed for pension income include:

- PEBA/OPRS subtraction – see FFI Income 16: Subtraction from Income for Recipients of PEBA or Denver Public Schools Retirement Benefits
- National retirement benefits subtraction – see the information at the end of this FFI
- Military retirement benefits subtraction – see FFI Income 21: Military Servicemembers

WHO CAN CLAIM THE PENSION AND ANNUITY SUBTRACTION

You can claim the pension and annuity subtraction if you received qualifying periods of annuity income (defined below) and either:

- you were 55 years or older at the end of the tax year, or
- you received the qualifying pension or annuity income as a beneficiary because of the death of the person who earned the pension or annuity.

PENSION AND ANNUITY INCOME THAT QUALIFIES FOR THE SUBTRACTION

Pension and annuity income qualifies for the subtraction only if it is included in your federal taxable income in the year that you claim the subtraction. That income must also be one of the income types included in the following table and reported on the appropriate line of your federal income tax return.

Types of Income (Lines) for the Pension and Annuity Subtraction

Type of Income	Line 4 on Federal Form 1040 or 1040-SR	Exceptions (income not eligible for the pension and annuity subtraction)
IRA distributions and pensions and annuities (including disability payments)	4b or 4d	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • privately purchased annuities that have not fully matured • lump-sum distributions • national retirement benefits subtracted separately on the Colorado return under the national benefits subtraction • PEBA or OPRS retirement income subtracted separately on the Colorado return under the PEBA/OPRS subtraction • income that is subject to the 10% premature distribution penalty
Fixed annuity benefits (including benefits reported as wages)	5a	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • benefits subtracted separately on the Colorado return under the national benefits subtraction
	5b	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • any disability benefits that are not for permanent disability

Taxable disability payments received before you have reached minimum retirement age must be reported on line 1 of federal Form 1040. See 401 Publication 1099 for additional information. These benefits are eligible for the Colorado pension/annuity subtraction as long as the recipient is 55 years or older.

Generally, distributions you receive before you reach age 59½ are subject to a federal penalty. See the federal resources at the end of this FFI for additional information. Distributions subject to this penalty do not qualify for the Colorado pension/annuity subtraction.
