Game Set And Murder:

Game, Set, Murder Jerome Dugas, 2011-07-08 Roman Catholic priest Jerry Rome is looking forward to a relaxing sabbatical at Loyola University in Chicago. He's set to take a summer course entitled Sexuality and the Ministry and he anticipates the entire experience will be pleasant, informative and filled with his favorite out of church pastime: tennis. When a fellow student is murdered though, the real games begin. The victim's body is found in strange condition and the authorities are stumped. Luckily, Jerry already befriended a local Chicago police detective named Joyce Jackson. Maybe they'll be able to solve the case together, but it soon becomes apparent that things are a lot more complicated than good guy catches bad. What at first resembled a relaxing vacation is turning into a dark storm of unforeseen events. Not the least of Jerry's concerns is the sensual Juanita Cabalero, a dark-skinned and strikingly beautiful Colombian who may threaten Jerry's priestly vows of celibacy. In order to catch a killer, Jerry and Joyce must use careful, skilled strategy, even when Juanita's odd affections get in the way. Jerry may discover the truth about the Loyola murders, but will he survive to win the final gory match? Game, Set,

Murder Michael Sheridan, 2016-05-10 At the beginning of August 1907, an early morning train from Monte Carlo pulled into the Gare Saint Charles in Marseilles. A trunk with a forwarding address was taken to the baggage section to await transportation. Some hours later, a station employee, Louis Pons, noticed blood dripping from the trunk. The police were called and, on opening it, discovered a naked female corpse. The head and legs were missing. Thus began the investigation into a sensational case which drew the attention of newspapers the world over. An army of reporters congregated in Marseilles and Monte Carlo to chronicle every twist and turn of the murder inquiry and subsequent trial. From the notorious casino, the trail led to Marseilles, London, Liverpool, Canada, and ultimately to County Cork and Waterford. The couple arrested for the crime were Vere St Leger Goold, an Irish aristocrat, and his French wife, Marie Giroudin. He was a former Irish Open tennis champion and Wimbledon finalist whose great promise in life had disintegrated into a mire of drink, drugs, and gambling. His wife was a con artist, always one step ahead of the financial posse. This fascinating tale involves the components of forensic science, psychological profiling, judicial investigation, and global reporting of historical character with a very contemporary echo.
