

Does either and explain how each does differently in the policymaking process? (what powers does each hold that the other does not?)	-Senate structure 5-35 -Impeachment power	-AFSC is not Congress power (Pre-identified appointments confirmation) -Affinity the other -Hold impeachment trial
--	--	--

Special Notes:

- By design, the different structures, powers, and functions of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives affect the policymaking process.
- Though both chambers initiate committees to conduct hearings and debate bills under congressional authority, different congressional committees of the House and Senate affect the policymaking process.
