KEY ISSUES Context The economy is being severely tested by the Syria crisis The refugee influx has reached one quarter of the population fueling already high unemployment and poverty The political impasse from the presidential elections following months of negotiations over a new government adds to the uncertainty The economy is meanwhile suffering from a broad based deterioration with subdued growth and widening fiscal imbalances Public debt is on the rise Progress on structural reforms has been limited On the positive side deposit inflows have held up and foreign exchange reserves are sizeable and security conditions have significantly improved lifting tourism prospects Key challenges There is an urgent need for fiscal adjustment to achieve a sustainable debt reduction and structural reforms to boost growth and address social inequities Key policy recommendations Fiscal policy The immediate priority is to stop the fiscal deterioration and return to primary surpluses to avoid a possible loss of market confidence and put debt on a sustainable path The consolidation strategy should minimize the impact of a planned salary increase for the public sector include broad based and non distortionary revenue measures and rebalance expenditure away from electricity transfers toward capital and social spending to promote inclusive growth Passing a budget for 2014 would help anchor confidence Fiscal management should be strengthened and anchored in a medium term perspective Monetary policy The Banque du Liban BdL should continue to maintain high foreign exchange reserves as a buffer and signal of commitment to macro financial stability It should gradually withdraw from T bill auctions and adopt a strategy to improve its balance sheet over time Financial sector Capital buffers should be strengthened and the loan classification and restructuring rules and the AML CFT regime further enhanced Structural reforms Reforms in the electricity sector and the labor market are imperative to address current competitiveness pressures lay the foundations for higher productivity growth and improve social conditions Refugee crisis Lebanon cannot shoulder the costs of the massive inflow of Syrian refugees alone and international budget support is needed Strong government commitment to adjustment and reforms along with a concerted policy framework to deal with the refugee crisis would bolster credibility and help mobilize support Paraguay International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept.,2016-05-11 This paper discusses the recent economic developments of Paraguay Against the backdrop of a regional slowdown Paraguay s economy remains relatively resilient The economy experienced some loss of momentum over the past year due to unfavorable external shocks Inflation pressures remain contained despite significant depreciation of the guaran against the U S dollar Macroeconomic policies remain accommodative in light of subdued inflation and slower growth Recently credit growth has moderated but credit quality has deteriorated To further strengthen fiscal monetary and financial sector policy frameworks Paraguay outlines structural reform agenda and measures The national development plan places emphasis on inclusive growth and poverty reduction Fiscal Transparency Handbook (2018) Sailendra Pattanayak,2018-04-16 The IMF's Fiscal Transparency Code is the international standard for disclosure of information about public finances and is the centerpiece of the global architecture on fiscal transparency The Fiscal Transparency Handbook 2018 provides detailed guidance on the implementation of the new Fiscal Transparency Code which was approved by the IMF Board in 2014 It explains why each principle of the Code is important and describes current trends in implementation of the principles noting relevant international standards as well Selected country examples are also provided Republic of Mozambique International Monetary Fund,2005-08-10 This paper presents an Update to the Data Module of the Report on the Observance of Standards and Codes ROSC for Mozambique Despite the improvements in recent years limitations in the coverage of most core comprehensive frameworks and indicators recommended in the General Data Dissemination System GDDS still exist including the absence of a manufacturing or industrial production index and labor market indicators In addition data on public and publicly guaranteed external debt are not disseminated with the recommended breakdown However most GDDS recommendations regarding periodicity and timeliness have been met Republic of Serbia International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2017-09-06 This 2017 Article IV Consultation highlights that Serbia's economy has strengthened impressively since the adoption of the economic program supported by the Stand By Arrangement Economic growth is expected to reach 3 percent in 2017 The fiscal deficit should narrow to 1.1 percent of GDP the lowest level since 2005 and public debt is heading down faster than projected Contrary to expectations the larger than planned fiscal tightening has been associated with increased growth reflecting the confidence engendered by decisively tackling the public debt sustainability concerns Moreover unemployment is falling sharply along with the level of banks nonperforming loans while inflation has been maintained at low levels Malta International Monetary Fund,2006-08-18 The quality of the macroeconomic statistics for Malta has improved significantly in recent years particularly as a result of the legal and institutional restructuring of the National Statistics Office NSO These changes were made in an effort to respond more effectively to the needs of users and to comply with new data reporting requirements of the European Union EU These improvements have brought Malta's statistical practices in line with internationally accepted standards and practices in a number of statistical areas Pakistan International Monetary Fund,2005-11-17 This 2005 Article IV Consultation for Pakistan reports that macroeconomic performance continues to be strong but inflation and external pressures are evident High growth including in agriculture is estimated to have raised disposable incomes The authorities ambitious growth objectives require substantial increases in investment including from the private sector Public investment has been increased to ease bottlenecks in transportation irrigation and energy In the short term macroeconomic policies need to be tightened somewhat to counter inflation and external pressures Using the Government Finance Statistics Manual 2001 (GFSM 2001) Statistical Framework to Strengthen Fiscal Analysis in the Fund International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs

Dept.,International Monetary Fund. Statistics Dept.,2005-10-25 This paper responds to the Board s call for greater consistency in fiscal reporting in line with GFSM 2001 In this context the paper summarizes the framework reviews the implementation process of the GFSM 2001 framework by member countries and Fund staff and proposes pilot studies It seeks the support of the Board for gradual adoption of the framework as the basis for fiscal analysis in Fund staff reports

Australia International Monetary Fund,2010-11-30 Australia s statistics are of a high quality Based on the review of its statistical practices a set of recommendations is presented designed to increase its adherence to internationally accepted statistical practices The aim of the review is to enhance the usefulness of Australia s statistics in terms of cross cutting recommendations making national accounts series available a national consumer price index producer price index and government finance statistics to include a breakdown of stocks and flows of financial assets and liabilities monetary statistics balance of payments and international investment position statistics

Paraguay: 2022 Article IV Consultation-Press Release; and Staff Report International Monetary,International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept.,2022-06-21 After two consecutive years of GDP decline driven by external shocks Paraguay s economy rebounded in 2021 In 2019 drought and flooding reduced economic growth to 0.4 percent In 2020 the impact of the pandemic on the secondary and tertiary sectors was partly compensated by a rebound of agriculture and an extensive emergency package and GDP fell by only 0.8 percent Growth rebounded to 4.2 percent in 2021 but heatwaves and a severe drought decelerated the recovery and have limited 2022 growth prospects though a recovery is projected for 2023 and the medium term While the loss of agricultural export revenue is affecting Paraguay s balance of payments in 2022 the external position in 2021 was stronger than the level implied by fundamentals and desirable policies

Republic of Kazakhstan International Monetary Fund,2003-03-18 This Report on the Observance of Standards and Codes ROSC data module provides a review of Kazakhstan s data dissemination practices against the IMF s General Data Dissemination System The quality of Kazakhstan s macroeconomic statistics has improved significantly in the last few years The authorities have established a good track record of implementing recommendations of past technical assistance missions in the area of statistics and have demonstrated commitment to pursue plans and programs to further improve their statistics

Germany International Monetary Fund,2006-12-14 The three point VAT increase is part of a package in which unemployment payroll taxes will be reduced Risks to the recovery are balanced but the range of forecasts for 2007 is unusually wide The priority for Germany is to transmit its external strength to the domestic economy thus further broadening the recovery and creating conditions for sustained high growth The authorities are undertaking a review of active labor market policies ALMPs with a view to curtailing their number

Qatar International Monetary Fund. Middle East and Central Asia Dept.,2019-06-03 This 2019 Article IV Consultation discusses that stronger real gross domestic product GDP growth is envisaged in the near term with a recovery in hydrocarbon output Medium term growth will be buoyed by increased gas production and non hydrocarbon growth Expenditure consolidation would help to sustain fiscal and external surpluses Ample liquidity will enable credit growth to support non hydrocarbon GDP Trade and geopolitical tensions could undermine investor confidence and weaken fiscal and external positions The policy priorities are fiscal consolidation strengthened fiscal policy frameworks enhanced resiliency of the financial sector financial inclusion and a diversified economy The financial sector remains sound underpinned by strong profitability and capital Strengthening the regulatory and supervisory frameworks would help to bolster financial stability Attention to women s empowerment by introducing legislation emphasizing equality in remuneration and avoiding gender based discrimination would support inclusive growth

Democratic Republic of São Tomé and Príncipe International Monetary Fund, African Dept.,2015-07-21 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY Context S o Tom and Príncipe s economic development is constrained by its insularity fragility limited resources and low capacity as a small island state The current ECF arrangement is set to expire on July 19 2015 with four reviews outstanding Program performance was satisfactory during the first year and half of implementation but went off track in early 2014 upon the contracting of a loan resulting in nonobservance of the performance criterion on non concessional debt and expenditure slippages in the run up to national elections further delayed program resumption In the meantime the key assumptions of the macroeconomic framework agreed under the current program changed significantly due to a lower probability of commercial oil production Extended Credit Facility The S o Tom an authorities have requested a three year arrangement under the ECF in an amount equivalent to SDR 4 440 000 60 percent of quota to rebuild buffers and catalyze financing in support of their medium term economic reform program The existing program would be cancelled Main elements of the program The program seeks to address the high debt vulnerability while also creating the conditions for sustained growth anchored by the PRSP II This involves reforms to Strengthen domestic revenue mobilization expenditure rationalization public debt management and public financial management to restore fiscal discipline and reduce the risk of debt distress Introduce a comprehensive plan to eliminate the stock of arrears and also prevent the accumulation of new arrears Enhance the capacity of key government institutions through well tailored technical assistance TA Enhance financial sector stability through strengthened supervisory regulatory crisis management and bank resolution frameworks

Georgia International Monetary Fund,2006-11-09 Economic growth continues to be strong but inflation has increased substantially The structural agenda remains focused on further improving tax and customs administration improving fiscal planning and public expenditure management and strengthening financial markets The main risks to the economic outlook stems from domestic and external political pressures Despite these risks and the recent surge in inflation the government s strong track record and the commitment to take corrective measures as needed bode well for the successful implementation of the program
