An Introduction to Population Geographies Holly R. Barcus, Keith Halfacree, 2017-09-01 An Introduction to Population Geographies provides a foundation to the incredibly diverse topical and interesting field of twenty first century population geography It establishes the substantive concerns of the subdiscipline acknowledges the sheer diversity of its approaches key concepts and theories and engages with the resulting major areas of academic debate that stem from this richness Written in an accessible style and assuming little prior knowledge of topics covered yet drawing on a wide range of diverse academic literature the book s particular originality comes from its extended definition of population geography that locates it firmly within the multiple geographies of the life course Consequently issues such as childhood and adulthood family dynamics ageing everyday mobilities morbidity and differential ability assume a prominent place alongside the classic population geography triumvirate of births migrations and deaths This broader framing of the field allows the book to address more holistically aspects of lives across space often provided little attention in current textbooks Particular note is given to how these lives are shaped though hybrid social biological and individual arenas of differential life course experience By engaging with traditional quantitative perspectives and newer qualitative insights the authors engage students from the quantitative macro scale of population to the micro individual scale Aimed at higher level undergraduate and graduate students this introductory text provides a well developed pedagogy including case studies that illustrate theory concepts and issues Human Geography of the UK David Graham,Irene Hardill,Eleonore Kofman,2013-01-11 This new key textbook for introductory courses in human geography provides first and second year undergraduates with a comprehensive thematic approach to the changing human geography of the UK at the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century Covering local regional national European and global issues it also explores in some detail topics which are part of the lived experience of undergraduates themselves such as crime unemployment social exclusion and AIDS User friendly textbook features include chapter introductions summaries and important theoretical principles up to date further reading and key online sources case studies examples and revision questions Asia in International Relations Pinar Bilgin,L.H.M.

Ling,2017-02-01 Asia in International Relations decolonizes conventional understandings and representations of Asia in International Relations IR This book opens by including all those geographical and cultural linkages that constitute Asia today but are generally ignored by mainstream IR Covering the Indian subcontinent Turkey the Mediterranean Iran the Arab world Ethiopia and Central Northeast Southeast Asia the volume draws on rich literatures to develop our understanding of power relations in the world s largest continent Contributors de colonize de imperialize and de Cold War the region to articulate an alternative narrative about Asia world politics and IR This approach reframes old problems in new ways with the possibility of transforming them rather than recycling the same old approaches with the same old intractable outcomes

Marxism and Real Estate Development Julian Roche,2023-09-01 This book straddles two worlds and attempts to bring them together that of Lefebvre s Marxism on the one hand and that of real estate development on the other Lefebvre has now become a household name amongst many contemporary Marxists especially those with an interest in urban planning and certain quarters of the architectural profession however his work is far less well known by real estate professionals whether investors developers brokers or indeed policymakers Marxism and Real Estate Taking Lefebvre Seriously has both a large scope and a very bold aim to use an explication and analysis of the work of Henri Lefebvre not only to present a critique of development but also to draw these two worlds together It therefore first aims to present the arguments of this increasingly well known French Marxist philosopher sociologist and pioneer of urban studies second to situate contemporary real estate development in the light of Lefebvre s work and third to analyse the potential application of Lefebvre s work to each of the major components of contemporary real estate to use Lefebvre s work in order to recommend practical action for developers working alongside planners and architects to influence the future of global real estate As well as its direction at developers themselves this book should be of interest to economists real estate researchers and professionals planners urban studies scholars and of course to those interested in the application of Lefebvre s work to real estate Twenty Writing

Assignments in Context Melissa Bender,Karma Waltonen,2017-01-11 Twenty original classroom tested assignments This innovative collection of college writing assignments explores the practical applications of each lesson Drawing upon current best practices each chapter includes a discussion of the rationale behind the assignment along with supplemental elements such as guidelines for evaluation prewriting exercises and tips for avoiding common pitfalls The assignments are designed for a range of courses from first year composition to upper division writing in various disciplines

Local and Regional Development Andy Pike, Andrés Rodríguez-Pose, John Tomaney, 2016-07-15 Actors and institutions in localities and regions across the world are seeking prosperity and well being amidst tumultuous and disruptive shifts and transitions generated by an increasingly globalised knowledge intensive capitalism global financial instability volatility and crisis concerns about economic social and ecological sustainability climate change and resource shortages new multi actor and multi level systems of government and governance and a re ordering of the international political economy state austerity and retrenchment and new and reformed approaches to intervention policy and institutions for local and regional development Local and Regional Development provides an accessible critical and integrated examination of local and regional development theory institutions and policy in this changing context Amidst its rising importance the book addresses the fundamental issues of what kind of local and regional development and for whom its purposes principles and values frameworks of understanding approaches and interventions and integrated approaches to local and regional development throughout the world The approach provides a theoretically informed critical analysis of contemporary local and regional development in an international and multi disciplinary context grounded in concrete empirical analysis from experiences in the global North and South It concludes by identifying what might constitute holistic inclusive progressive and sustainable local and regional development and reflecting upon its limits and political renewal
