The Politics of Education in Developing Countries Sam Hickey, Naomi Hossain, 2019-02-21 Why have many developing countries that have succeeded in expanding access to education made such limited progress on improving learning outcomes There is a growing recognition that the learning crisis constitutes a significant dimension of global inequality and also that educational outcomes in developing countries are shaped by political as well as socio economic and other factors The Politics of Education in Developing Countries focuses on how politics shapes the capacity and commitment of elites to tackle the learning crisis in six developing countries Bangladesh Cambodia Ghana Rwanda South Africa and Uganda The problem of education quality is serious across the Global South The Politics of Education in Developing Countries From Schooling to Learning deploys a new conceptual framework the domains of power approach to show how the type of political settlement shapes the level of elite commitment and state capacity to improving learning outcomes The domain of education is prone to being highly politicized as it offers an important source of both rents and legitimacy to political elites and can be central to paradigmatic elite ideas around nation building and modernity Of particular importance is the relative strength of coalitions pushing for access as against those focused on issues of higher quality education This book concludes with a discussion of entry points and strategies for thinking and working politically in relation to education quality reforms and critical commentaries Behind from the Start Lenette Azzi-Lessing, 2017 Today there are nearly six million children under the

The Preschool Entitlement Jan van Ravens, Luis Crouch, Katherine Merseth King, Elisa A. Hartwig, Carlos Aggio, 2023-01-09 Only three out of five children are enrolled in preschool globally and only one out of five in low income countries yet the expansion of preschool education came to a near standstill in 2020 To restart it we propose a policy instrument called the Preschool Entitlement It entails the right of every child to 600 hours of quality government funded preschool education per year 3 hours per day 5 days per week 40 weeks per year Existing preschool institutions and other organizations with legal status public private faith or community based can offer the child development program after a process of rigorous accreditation to ensure quality inclusion and safety In other respects they will have the freedom to shape the program according to local circumstances and local preferences This makes it possible to supplement the daily 3 hours with additional hours of childcare that can be financed by families local government employers national associations faith based organizations ministries of social affairs or others In this manner the Preschool Entitlement reconciles local autonomy with governmental responsibility for quality access and equity In low and middle income countries government costs would range from about 0.15 to 0.4 percent of GDP and the benefits are likely to be significant
