geology 6 miscellaneous and 16 physics Challenging the Apartheids of Knowledge in Higher Education through Social Innovation Joana Bezerra, Craig Paterson, Sharli Paphitis, 2021-05-12 In order to understand the relationship between social innovation and the reimagining of the knowledge economy necessary to reorient higher education most fully towards the public good we must draw from the experiences of those working on the front lines of change This collection represents diverse voices and disciplines drawing together the critical reflections of academics students and community partners from across South Africa The book seeks to bring together theoretical and practical lessons about how research methods can be used in socially innovative ways to challenge the apartheid of knowledge in higher education and to promote the democratization of the knowledge economy Personality Tests and Reviews Oscar Krisen Buros, 1970 Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher, Kate Cockcroft, 2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners Social Exclusion and the Gender Gap in Education Maureen Lewis, Learning From Others Diane Shorrocks-Taylor, Edgar W. Jenkins, 2005-12-20 Diane Shorrocks Taylor School of Education University of Leeds UK In September 1998 a conference was held at the University of Leeds entitled International comparisons of pupil performance issues and policy It was arranged by two groups within the School of Education at the University the newly formed Assessment and Evaluation Unit and the Centre for Studies in Science and Mathematics Education The joint interest in international comparisons of performance had itself arisen from earlier involvement in a follow up study of the 1995 TIMSS work in England reported in a later chapter in this book in which the TIMSS assessment outcomes were studied alongside the outcomes from the National Curriculum testing programme in England Some of the results of this investigation had proved both interesting and challenging so the decision was made to promote wider discussion of some key issues by inviting contributors from all over the world to a meeting the major aims of which were to promote an exploration of the theoretical foundations of international comparative studies of student performance the practical problems of carrying out such studies the appropriateness of the assessment models and approaches used in international comparisons the role of international comparative studies in raising standards of student performance and how international studies affect the shaping of national policy on education Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics Minority and Cross-Cultural Aspects of Neuropsychological Assessment F. Richard Ferraro, 2015-07-16 Minority and cross cultural psychology is more relevant now than ever in our diverse world Given the dramatic local and global changes occurring daily with regard to demographics population changes and immigration issues minority and cross cultural psychology is fast becoming a respected and critical area of scientific study Pair that with the fact that people of all cultures and racial groups are living longer and experiencing age related diseases and disorders one can easily see the need for additional work on issues related to neuropsychological assessment This new edition brings to the forefront recent developments by seasoned experts in the field They offer up their newest projects in minority and cross cultural aspects of neuropsychological assessment and are joined by new up and coming professionals across a wide array of disciplines including psychology medicine and neuropsychology Like the first edition this updated collection sheds light on the ever growing need for adequate neuropsychological assessment to a wider subset of individuals crossing many cultural and minority barriers in the process Continuously pushing the boundaries of neuropsychological assessment this collection is essential reading for cognitive and clinical psychologists and neuropsychologists and a model text for advanced courses dealing with minority and cross cultural issues Human Sciences Technology R. J. Prinsloo, 1993 This book covers a representative sample of the types of technology developed by the South African Human Sciences Research Council HSRC It is divided into five sections 1 Introduction Andries R van den Berg 2 Technology for Education and Training A Cecilia Bouwer 3 Technology for Managing Human Resources Terry R Taylor 4 Human Sciences Technology in Managing Problems Arising from Social Issues Arie G Oberholster and 5 Future Perspectives Roelf J Prinsloo The aim of the book is to indicate social and organizational needs that could be addressed through human sciences technology This publication serves three functions to create a greater awareness of the fact that the human sciences need not be restricted to describing and explaining what is going on in society to stimulate students in the human sciences with a listing of a wide array of technology and to promote cooperation with other professionals and stakeholders in utilizing the potential of the human sciences to improve the quality of life of all South Africans References are included with each section

TMK Translanguaging, Coloniality and Decolonial Cracks Robyn Tyler, 2023-01-13 In this linguistic ethnography of bilingual science learning in a South African high school the author connects microanalyses of classroom discourse to broader themes of de coloniality in education The book challenges the deficit narrative often used to characterise the capabilities of linguistically minoritised youth and explores the challenges and opportunities associated with leveraging students full semiotic repertoires in learning specific concepts The author examines the linguistic landscape of the school and the beliefs and attitudes of staff and students which produce both coloniality and cracks in the edifice of coloniality A critical translanguaging lens is applied to analyse multilingual and multimodal aspects of students science meaning making in a traditional classroom and a study group intervention Finally the book suggests implications for decolonial pedagogical translanguaging in Southern multilingual classrooms
