24-Hour Cities Hugh F. Kelly, 2016-07-15 Winner of the Gold Award in the Tenth Annual Robert Bruss Real Estate Book Competition 24 Hour Cities is the very first full length book about

America's cities that never sleep Over the last fifty years the nation's top live work play cities have proven themselves more than just vibrant urban environments for the elite They are attracting a cross section of the population from across the U S and are preferred destinations for immigrants of all income strata This is creating a virtuous circle wherein economic growth enhances property values stronger real estate markets sustain more reliable tax bases and solid municipal revenues pay for better services that further attract businesses and talented individuals Yet just a generation ago cities like New York Boston Washington San Francisco and Miami were broke financially and physically scarred by violence and prime examples of urban dysfunction How did the turnaround happen And why are other cities still stuck with the hollow downtowns and sprawling suburbs that make for a 9 to 5 urban configuration Hugh Kelly's cross disciplinary research identifies the ingredients of success and the recipe that puts them together

Financial Literacy Education Chris Arthur, 2012-10-13 Consumer financial literacy education often appears as a helpful commonsense solution to neoliberalism and the individualization of responsibility for economic risk However in Financial Literacy Education Neoliberalism the Consumer and the Citizen this particular literacy is argued to be both ineffective and unjust Socially created poverty unemployment and economic insecurity require more than individual consumer solutions they require collective responses by engaged critical citizens Utilizing concepts from Marx Foucault Bourdieu and Baudrillard this book challenges those who claim that there is no alternative to neoliberal insecurity and reduce education to a consumerist training of entrepreneurial consumer citizens who can continually invest in themselves and the market Through an analysis of consumer financial literacy education's present and historical supports as well as its likely effects this book argues that the choice before us is not financial illiteracy or financial literacy Rather the choice is between subjugation to the requirements of perpetual competition or overcoming alienation insecurity and exploitation aims the critical financial literacy education outlined at the end of this book supports This book will appeal to those interested in understanding the conditions of our freedom in an increasingly financialized world critical educators philosophers and sociologists of education and financial literacy researchers

Private Schools in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq Hassun, Hishyar, 2023-03-16 This book addresses the development and the functions of private schools in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq A region that witnessed a huge change in the education system after its establishment in 1992 alongside with the rise of private schools numbers Private school choice and profiles of private education providers are discussed based on empirical data The data consist of using document analysis of 10 private education providers websites to describe the profiles of private education providers as well as a questionnaire n 223 conducted with parents to find out the most important factors influencing the choice of private schools The study shows that private schools in Kurdistan Region of Iraq connect students to the globalized world through using English as the medium of instruction which is considered the most important factor that parents consider in choosing private schools The choice of private schools can be seen as a reflect for a globalized movement towards the privatization of education

Sustainability

Standards and Global Governance Archana Negi, Jorge Antonio Pérez-Pineda, Johannes Blankenbach, 2020-07-02 This open access book focuses on the issue of sustainability standards from the perspective of both global governance frameworks and emerging economies. It stems from the recognition that the accelerated pace of economic globalization has generated production and consumption patterns that are generating sustainability concerns. Sustainability standards and regulations are increasingly being used in a bid to make global consumption and production more sustainable. Given the dense interconnectedness of economic affairs globally, the use of sustainability standards has become a concern of global governance who face the challenge of achieving a balance between the use of standards for genuine sustainability objectives and not allowing them to turn into instruments of protectionism or coercion. The emerging economies given their increasing engagement with the global economy are most impacted by the use of sustainability standards. The emphasis of emerging economies in this book is retained both by using case studies from these economies and by collating perceptions and assessments of those located in these economies. The case studies included span sectors such as palm oil, forestry, food quality, vehicular emissions, and water standards and address the problems unique to the emerging economies including capacity building for compliance with standards, adapting international standards in domestic contexts, and addressing the exclusion of small and medium enterprises etc. Complex interfaces and dynamics of a global nature are not limited to the thematic of this book but also extend to the process through which it was written. This book brings together insights from developed as well as emerging economies: Germany, India, Mexico, Brazil, Indonesia, Pakistan, Mexico, and China. It also brings together scholars and practitioners to jointly ponder upon the conceptual aspects of the global frameworks for sustainability standards. This book is a very useful resource for researchers and practitioners alike and provides valuable insights for policy makers as well.
