Individualization Ulrich Beck (sociologist), Elisabeth Beck-Gernsheim, 2002-02-04 The authors perceive that we humans are in the midst of a fundamental change in the nature of society and politics This change hinges on the two processes of globalisation and individualisation     Liberalism and Chinese Economic Development Gilles Campagnolo, 2016-04-28 Liberalism and Chinese Economic Development brings international contributors together in order to consider economic political social and legislative aspects of China's modernization This volume explores how liberalism is received and perceived and whether it is adapted or adopted upon the basis of centuries of Chinese civilization and decades of capitalism China's role in the global economy is an undeniable force This book examines both historical and contemporary dimensions surrounding the question of Chinese liberalism exploring China's economic development in a comparative context In particular this text explores differences with the Western model and more specifically the relationship between Chinese economic thought and European traditions This text assesses China's economic development at both a macro and a micro level and also considers its relationship with its neighbours Campagnolo answers whether free trade and capitalistic economic developments are long sustainable without other types of liberal developments Or is the idea that political liberties and economic freedom are just Western ideologies This is a uniquely wide ranging book suitable for scholars of the Chinese economy the history of economic thought economic philosophy and international political economy     Your Place or Mine? Ethel Crowley, 2013-03-22 Ireland's economy is being scrutinised daily by everyone from politicians to pub goers but what about the deeper questions of Ireland's sense of identity and community Socially Ireland is in a period of rapid change is it time to get behind the numbers and look at who we really are In Your Place or Mine sociologist Ethel Crowley looks at our attitudes to home place family sexuality and community Do we still need the traditional forms of connection to home family community and locality in the highly globalised society in which we live Do we still like to stay within the heart of a familiar comfort zone or are we willing to push its boundaries Your Place or Mine captures some of the complexities of contemporary Ireland What is the impact of globalisation and multiculturalism Are community values really declining Despite a more liberal attitude to sexuality are we a liberal society Ethel Crowley mixes warm hearted biography and sociological rigour to create a set of reflections on finding our place in the world as a country and as individuals Crowley uses an exciting innovative approach to identify and describe the cultural transformations of contemporary Ireland Mixing personal memories with sociologically informed debate she provides an insightful and imaginative explanation of how Ireland has combined the local with the global Professor Tom Inglis School of Sociology University College Dublin     Young People, Wellbeing and Sustainable Arctic Communities Florian Stammler, Reetta Toivanen, 2021-10-29 Youth are usually not yet decision makers in politics or in business corporations but the sustainability of Arctic settlements depends on whether or not youth envision such places as offering opportunities for a good future This is the first multidisciplinary volume presenting original research on Arctic youth This edited book presents the results of two research projects on youth wellbeing and senses of place in the Arctic region The contributions are united by their focus on agency Rather than seeing youth as vulnerable and possible victims of decisions by others they illustrate the diverse avenues that youth pursue to achieve a good life in the Arctic The contributions also show which social economic political and legal conditions provide the best frame for youth agency in Arctic settlements Rather than portraying the Arctic as a resource frontier a hotspot for climate change and a place where biodiversity and traditional Indigenous cultures are under threat the book introduces the Arctic as a place for opportunities the realization of life trajectories and young people s images of home Rooted in anthropology the chapters also feature contributions from the fields of sociology geography sustainability science legal studies and political science This book is intended for an audience interested in anthropology political science Arctic urban studies youth studies Arctic social sciences and humanities in general It would attract those working on Arctic sustainability wellbeing in the Arctic Arctic demography and overall wellbeing of youth

Families in an Era of Increasing Inequality Paul R. Amato, Alan Booth, Susan M. McHale, Jennifer Van Hook, 2014-10-07 The widening gap between the rich and the poor is turning the American dream into an impossibility for many particularly children and families And as the children of low income families grow to adulthood they have less access to opportunities and resources than their higher income peers and increasing odds of repeating the experiences of their parents Families in an Era of Increasing Inequality probes the complex relations between social inequality and child development and examines possibilities for disrupting these ongoing patterns Experts across the social sciences track trends in marriage divorce employment and family structure across socioeconomic strata in the U S and other developed countries These family data give readers a deeper understanding of how social class shapes children s paths to adulthood and how those paths continue to diverge over time and into future generations In addition contributors critique current policies and programs that have been created to reduce disparities and offer suggestions for more effective alternatives Among the topics covered Inequality begins at home the role of parenting in the diverging destinies of rich and poor children Inequality begins outside the home putting parental educational investments into context How class and family structure impact the transition to adulthood Dealing with the consequences of changes in family composition Dynamic models of poverty related adversity and child outcomes The diverging destinies of children and what it means for children s lives As new initiatives are sought to improve the lives of families and children in the short and long term Families in an Era of Increasing Inequality is a key resource for researchers and practitioners in family studies social work health education sociology demography and psychology

Handbook on Crime Fiona Brookman, Mike Maguire, Harriet Pierpoint, Trevor Bennett, 2010-02-01 The Handbook on Crime is a comprehensive edited volume that contains analysis and explanation of the nature extent patterns and causes of over 40 different forms of crime in each case drawing attention to key contemporary debates and social and criminal justice responses to them It also challenges many popular and official conceptions of crime

This book is one of the few criminological texts that takes as its starting point a range of specific types of criminal activity. It addresses not only conventional offences such as shoplifting, burglary, robbery and vehicle crime, but many other forms of criminal behaviour, often an amalgamation of different legal offences which attract contemporary media, public and policy concern. These include crimes committed not only by individuals but by organised criminal groups, corporations and governments. There are chapters on, for example, gang violence, hate crime, elder abuse, animal abuse, cyber crime, identity theft, money laundering, eco crimes, drug trafficking, human trafficking, genocide and global terrorism. Many of these topics receive surprisingly little attention in the criminological literature. The Handbook on Crime will be a unique text of lasting value to students, researchers, academics, practitioners, policy makers, journalists and all others involved in understanding and preventing criminal behaviour.

Diversity in family life Elisabetta Ruspini, 2013-06-19 As the variety and number of nontraditional families grow, so does the need for new models of family and parenthood. Diversity in Family Life discusses the relationship between shifting gender identities and the processes of family formation, examining non-traditional family structures including asexual couples, child-free couples, living apart together couples, single parents and homosexual and transsexual parents. Calling for bold reformulations, it argues that it is possible to live, love and form a family in an astounding variety of ways.

Digital Media and the Daily Lives of China's Senior Citizens Chen Guo, 2025-08-12 Guo provides a comprehensive outlook of how digital media is transforming the daily lives of senior citizens in China. The book explores the important role digital media play in senior citizens' daily lives and the disparities of third age's digital well-being. It applies the concepts of digital capital and individualisation to China and uses a combination of qualitative research, including interviews with seniors and focus groups, with recent data on media use, aging and demography. Its fieldwork with seniors conducted in a second-tier city of China provides insights on how the process of digitalisation has transformed seniors' daily lives. A valuable book for scholars and researchers in sociology, digital media, active aging, population, gerontology and China studies.

Markets, Politics and the Environment Barry Goodchild, 2016-08-25 Markets, Politics and the Environment answers three groups of questions: What is planning and as part of this, What are its key features as a style of social practice and action and How does planning as a style of social practice relate to social and economic change? How, as part of the justification for planning, might claims of valid technical knowledge be constructed? What is meant by rational? What is the contribution of pragmatism as a supplement or replacement to rationalism? How might rationality and pragmatism be adapted to postmodernism and the requirements of diversity? Finally, how may concepts of planning be reoriented towards sustainable development as a collective duty? How might sustainable development be reworked in relation to planning as a means of managing and stimulating change? Each group of questions is discussed in a separate chapter and is associated with different theories, debates and examples of practice. Markets, Politics and the Environment concludes that the full implications of sustainable development and climate change point in the direction of a different type of state, a green state whose future functioning can draw on planning theory but at present can only be conceived as a sketchy outline      "When Salary is not Enough..." Eckhard Dittrich, Heiko Schrader, 2015 Systemic change from a planned economy to a market society requires not only an implementation of market institutions but also the actions of people according to the new conditions in everyday life This book focuses on the question of how far middle class households are able to organize their livelihoods It presents a cross country rural urban comparison in Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan based on secondary data and quantitative and qualitative primary research It examines region specific questions such as Do these households take the necessary self responsibility for their lives Or do they still rely on the Soviet type nanny state of the past Or do they only believe in their own networks of kin and acquaintances for earning their livelihoods Series Societal Transformations Gesellschaftliche Transformationen Vol 20 Subject Sociology Economics Asian Studies      Adolescents in Contemporary Indonesia Lyn Parker, Pam Nilan, 2013-07-18 The youth demographic is a large and growing cohort in Indonesia and adolescents embody the currents of social change Throughout the twentieth century they were significant agents of social protest leading to social and political transformation This book looks at the importance of adolescents in contemporary Indonesia and how they are spearheading not just globalisation and a growing consumer youth culture but also the Islamisation movement The book explores both the inner worlds and social selves of Indonesian adolescents It presents an in depth knowledge of Indonesian society and culture in various parts of Indonesia and discusses national patterns and trends Grounded in two field sites the book enables an analysis of young people s local ethnic and religious identities and their commitment to the Indonesian nation state It goes on to look at the physical age bracket of youth the definitions used by the Indonesian state and other agencies and the perceptions of youth themselves about adolescence and adulthood Providing a comprehensive study of young people in contemporary Indonesia the book addresses gender relations the importance of education for youth and youth engagement with popular culture and the moral issue concerning the sexual propriety of young people It is a useful contribution for students and academics of Asian Studies Sociology and Cultural Studies      Thinking about Belonging in Youth Studies Anita Harris, Hernan Cuervo, Johanna Wyn, 2021-07-22 This book takes a global perspective to address the concept of belonging in youth studies interrogating its emergence as a reoccurring theme in the literature and elucidating its benefits and shortcomings While belonging offers new alignments across previously divergent approaches to youth studies its pervasiveness in the field has led to criticism that it means both everything and nothing and thus requires deeper analysis to be of enduring value The authors do this work to provide an accessible scholarly account of how youth studies uses belonging by focusing on transitions participation citizenship and mobility to address its theoretical and historical underpinnings and its prevalence in youth policy and research      Impacts of Mobile Use and Experience on Contemporary Society Xu, Xiaoge, 2019-03-22 As a popular and powerful medium mobile use has increased significantly across the world The effects of these communication devices have not only transformed how we communicate but also how we gather and distribute information in a variety of industries including healthcare business and education Impacts of Mobile Use and Experience on Contemporary Society provides cross disciplinary research that ties together use and experience examining the transformative influence of mobile technology and how it is reshaping who we are and what we do Featuring research that investigates the impacts on both actors and activities with topic coverage that includes academic application economic value and mobile learning scholars from different disciplines from all over the world identify the crucial implications behind mobile technology Included amongst the targeted audience are educators policymakers healthcare professionals managers academicians researchers and practitioners      Emotions in Culture and Everyday Life Michael Hviid

Handbook defines how knowledge contributes to social and economic life and vice versa It considers the five areas critical to acquiring a comprehensive understanding of the knowledge economy the nature of the knowledge economy social cooperative cultural creative ethical and intellectual capital knowledge and innovation systems policy analysis for knowledge based economies and knowledge management In presenting the outcomes of an important body of research the Handbook enables knowledge policy and management practitioners to be more systematically guided in their thinking and actions The contributors cover a wide disciplinary spectrum in an accessible way presenting concise to the point discussions of critical concepts and practices that will enable practitioners to make effective research managerial and policy decisions They also highlight important new areas of concern to knowledge economies such as wisdom ethics language and creative economies that are largely overlooked Distinguished by a combination of practical relevance and analytical rigour this Handbook provides new insights into the basic mechanisms that constitute a knowledge economy and society and will be invaluable to practitioners and academics in diverse areas of interest including knowledge management innovation management knowledge policy social epistemology and development studies      Invisible Seasides Tony Blackshaw,2025-08-01 Invisible Seasides positions the seaside as a lens for understanding lived utopia pinned in a certain place an immovable feature in a landscape where our hopes and fears continue to unfold Wide ranging in theme it brings a double perspective past and present to bear on how we understand contemporary seaside experience Presenting a magical paradox of the modern seaside

this book traces the development of a cultural phenomenon from the mid 1800s to the present day In the process it modifies the accepted narrative about its rise and fall reappraising our understanding of the end of a Mass Utopia and shining new light on the diversity of post utopias that have emerged in its afterlife Fusing social theory social history and leisure studies its thesis adroitly envisions the diverse density of the seaside through a critical lens making the unfamiliar familiar and vice versa providing us with an exemplar for a different way of thinking sociologically which will be used by scholars from a range of different subject fields to encourage fresh reflection on social continuity and change The Mediation of Poverty Joanna Redden,2014-02-19 The Mediation of Poverty The News New Media and Politics discusses the influence of the increasing use of digital technologies on media and political responses to poverty in the United Kingdom and Canada Considering poverty politics at symbolic and structural levels Joanna Redden uses a frame analysis of mainstream and alternative news content to identify which narratives dominate poverty coverage what is missing from mainstream news coverage and what can be learned by looking at alternative sources of news and information The Mediation of Poverty argues that news coverage privileges and embeds neoliberal approaches to the issue of poverty in Canada and the United Kingdom Interviews with journalists politicians researchers and activists enable discussion on a micro level of the changing nature of news politics and activism and how these changes influences poverty politics Redden raises concerns about how the speed of digitally mediated working environments is reshaping even foreclosing opportunities for communication reflection and contestation in a way that reinforces the dominance of market based thinking and limits political responses to poverty Fantasy, Neoliberalism and Precariousness J  r  my Vachet,2022-03-30 Contributing to debates within cultural studies sociology and the political economy of communication about working lives in the cultural and creative industries Vachet answers to date unexplored questions around the psychosocial impact of precariousness and other problematic features of work in the cultural industries

The Cinema of Me Alisa Lebow,2012 When a filmmaker makes a film with herself as a subject she is already divided as both the subject matter of the film and the subject making the film The two senses of the word are immediately in play the matter and the maker thus the two ways of being subjectified as both subject and object Subjectivity finds its filmic expression not surprisingly in very personal ways yet it is nonetheless shaped by and in relation to collective expressions of identity that can transform the cinema of me into the cinema of we Leading scholars and practitioners of first person film are brought together in this groundbreaking collection to consider the theoretical ideological and aesthetic challenges wrought by this form of filmmaking in its diverse cultural geographical and political contexts Ulrich Beck Ulrich Beck,2014-03-22 This book presents Ulrich Beck one of the world s leading sociologists and social thinkers as a Pioneer in Cosmopolitan Sociology and Risk Society His world risk society theory has been confirmed by recent disasters events that have shaken modern society to the core signaling the end of an era in which comprehensive insurance could keep us safe Due to its own successes modern society now faces failure while in the past experiments were conducted in a lab now the whole world is a test bed Whether nuclear plants genetically modified organisms nanotechnology if any of these experiments went wrong the consequences would have a global impact and would be irreversible Beck recommends ignoring the mathematical morality of expert opinions which seek to identify the level of a given risk by calculating the probability of its occurrence Instead man's fear of collapse should offer an opportunity for international cooperation and a cosmopolitan turn in the social sciences
