Development: Day Care: Serving pre-school children, by D. J. Cohen in collaboration with A. S. Brandeggee. (no. (OHD) 75-1057) United States. Office of Child Development, 1974 Infant - Toddler Cynthia C. Jones

Shoemaker, 2015-04-24 Good solid information is hard to get How hard is it for you to come up with ideas to boost learning for children at home Dont be taken in by expensive educational materials and toys that might not be up to date age appropriate or geared toward your childs learning style A childs most important first teacher is the parent With our preschool primary and upper grades programs we involve the parents in the individual educational needs of their child or children Please take some time to review the materials and learn more about simple educational materials and tools that you can use with your children at home to boost their IQ and vocabulary This program only requires a few minutes each day too as often as you would like Innovations Linda G. Miller, Kay M. Albrecht, 2001 This guide is designed for training teachers in the use of the Innovations curricula for infants and for toddlers The Innovations program is based on the view that curricula for young children should involve thinking and planning for everything that can contribute to child development as well as the teacher's relationship with the child and the family. This guide is organized in two sections. Section 1 contains an 8-hour training session providing a comprehensive introduction to the Innovations curricula. Included in this section are a list of preparation steps, a list of handouts, overheads, and materials needed, and a detailed planning grid and agenda for conducting workshop activities. Section 2 contains 29 training modules designed to be used in inservice, preservice workshops or in biweekly/monthly staff meetings. Seven of these training modules address the following aspects of child development: theory, principles of development, physical development, attachment, temperament, play, brain development, and intellectual development; language development and literacy; and social development and social problem solving. Topics for the remaining training modules are: 1. developmental tasks, 2. observation and assessment, 3. interactive experiences, 4. parent partnerships, 5. curriculum planning process, 6. environments, 7. dramatic possibilities, 8. sensory art possibilities, 9. curiosity possibilities, 10. construction possibilities, 11. music/movement possibilities, 12. literacy possibilities, 13. outdoor possibilities, 14. projects, 15. prop boxes, 16. picture files/vocabulary, 17. guidance and discipline, 18. biting, 19. aggression, 20. social problem solving, 21. toileting, and 22. portfolios. Each training module includes an outline for the workshop providing information on activities, the training technique used, and necessary materials. The guide's appendix includes the forms, checklists, worksheets, and information summaries used in the workshops. KB
