Bearing the Cross David J. Garrow, 2015-02-17 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize The definitive biography of Martin Luther King Jr In this monumental account of the life of Martin Luther King Jr professor and historian David Garrow traces King s evolution from young pastor who spearheaded the 1955 56 bus boycott of Montgomery Alabama to inspirational leader of America s civil rights movement Based on extensive research and more than seven hundred interviews with subjects including Andrew Young Jesse Jackson and Coretta Scott King Garrow paints a multidimensional portrait of a charismatic figure driven by his strong moral obligation to lead and of the toll this calling took on his life Bearing the Cross provides a penetrating account of King s spiritual development and his crucial role at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference whose protest campaigns in Birmingham and Selma Alabama led to enactment of the landmark Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Voting Rights Act of 1965 This comprehensive yet intimate study reveals the deep sense of mission King felt to serve as an unrelenting crusader against prejudice inequality and violence and his willingness to sacrifice his own life on behalf of his beliefs Written more than twenty five years ago Bearing the Cross remains an unparalleled examination of the life of Martin Luther King Jr and the legacy of the civil rights movement

Transculturizing Auto/Biography Rosalia Baena, 2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena s theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self inscription and self representation Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing which tends to centre on content the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies

MLK: An American Legacy David J. Garrow, 2016-06-28 Three meticulously researched works including Pulitzer Prize winner Bearing the Cross spanning the life of civil rights icon Martin Luther King Jr This collection from professor and historian David J Garrow provides a multidimensional and fascinating portrait of Martin Luther King Jr and his mission to upend deeply entrenched prejudices in society and enact legal change that would achieve equality for African Americans one hundred years after their emancipation from slavery Bearing the Cross traces King s evolution from the young pastor who spearheaded the 1955 56 bus boycott in Montgomery to the inspirational leader of America s civil rights movement focusing on King s crucial role at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference Garrow captures King s charisma his moral obligation to lead a nonviolent crusade against racism and inequality and the toll this calling took on his life Garrow delves deeper into one of the civil rights movement's most decisive moments in Protest at Selma These demonstrations led to the landmark Voting Rights Act of 1965 that along with the Civil Rights Act of 1964 remains a key aspect of King's legacy Garrow analyzes King's political strategy and understanding of how media coverage especially reports of white violence against peaceful African American protestors elicited sympathy for the cause King's fierce determination to overturn the status quo of racial relations antagonized FBI director J Edgar Hoover The FBI and Martin Luther King Jr follows Hoover's personal obsession to destroy the civil rights leader In an unprecedented abuse of governmental power Hoover led one of the most invasive surveillance operations in American history desperately trying to mar King's image As a collection these utterly engrossing books are a key to understanding King's inner life his public persona and his legacy and are a testament to his impact in forcing America to confront intolerance and bigotry at a critical time in the nation's history

Life Writing Outside the Lines Eva C. Karpinski, Ricia Chansky, 2020-06-04 Designed as a contribution to the field of transnational comparative American studies this book focuses on gender in life writing that exceeds the boundaries of traditional genres The contributors engage with authors who bend genres to speak gender as it manifests in multiple shapes in different geographic locations across the Americas and especially as it intersects with race and migration war and colonialism illness and ageing In addition to supplying new insights into the established sites of auto biographical production such as memoir archive and oral history the book explores experimental mixed forms such as selfies auto theory auto bio comics and autobiogeography By combining this multi genre and multi media perspective with a multi generational approach to life writing the book showcases a spectrum of established and emerging critical voices many of whom have been influenced by the work of Marlene Kadar the Canadian life writing scholar whose interventions have expanded the feminist and interdisciplinary methods of life writing studies Tracing the intergenerational relay of ideas this collection fosters dialogue across the western hemisphere and will be useful to those studying life writing exchanges between North America Latin America and the Caribbean This book was originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies

Negotiated Memory Julie Rak, 2004 The Doukhobors Russian speaking immigrants who arrived in Canada beginning in 1899 are known primarily to the Canadian public through the sensationalist images of them as nude protestors anarchists and religious fanatics representations largely propagated by government commissions and the Canadian media In Negotiating Memory Julie Rak examines the ways in which autobiographical strategies have been employed by the Doukhobors themselves in order to retell and reclaim their own history Drawing from oral interviews court documents government reports prison diaries and media accounts Rak demonstrates how the Doukhobors employed both classic and alternative forms of autobiography to communicate their views about communal living vegetarianism activism and spiritual life as well as to pass on traditions to successive generations More than a historical work this book brings together recent theories concerning subjectivity autobiography and identity and shows how Doukhobor autobiographical discourse forms a series of ongoing negotiations for identity and collective survival that are sometimes successful and sometimes not An innovative study Negotiating Memory will appeal to those interested in autobiography studies as well as to historians literary critics and students and scholars of Canadian cultural studies Guide for Hotel Management 2021 Arihant
