

Think about changes...

On the morning the letter came, Dad had shouted out excitedly, "We're setting out on a new adventure," but I wasn't convinced I wanted to leave behind my life in the city. Two months later, removal day had come and gone, and we had arrived at our new house in the country. The hallway looked like a pigsty. It was cluttered up with piles of boxes; full of dusty old books we never read, ancient ornaments we didn't look at and other family heirlooms even Granny didn't want. There was a musty sort of smell that you associate with old things that are stored in the loft. It was a horrible muddle and looked as if we were collecting for a jumble sale. This made me feel even more miserable; the adventure hadn't got off to a good start.
