Austerity as Public Mood Kirsten Forkert, 2017-09-20 Austerity as Public Mood explores how politicians and the media mobilise nostalgic and socially conservative ideas of work and community in order to justify cuts to public services and create divisions between the deserving and undeserving It examines the powerful appeal of these concepts as part of a wider public mood marked by guilt nostalgia and resentment particularly around the inequalities produced by global capitalism and changes to the nature of work In doing so the book engages with urgent questions about the contemporary political climate Focusing on the UK it challenges accounts of neoliberalism which frame it as primarily an individualising force and localist definitions of community as mitigating its damaging effects Finally it explores how resistance to austerity can challenge these tendencies by offering a politics of solidarity and hope and a forum for experimentation with alternative forms of collectivity

Checking Out Katherine Doggrell, 2020-01-23 Is it time for traditional hotels to check out As one of the world s most established industries the hotel sector has remained relatively unchanged and unchallenged for decades Yet traditional hotels have recently come under increasing pressure on two major fronts from disruptors in the sharing economy such as Airbnb and by a rising wave of modern consumers who have become re educated by social media and hotel comparison websites Can this traditionally slow moving sector reinvent itself or will it become increasingly marginalized Is it time for traditional hotels to check out Increasing numbers of hoteliers believe that traditional hotels are on the brink of a resurgence in popularity Global hotel chains are catching up to modern trends adding technologized curation and personalisation to their offerings In Checking Out Katherine Doggrell interviews key figures in the hotel industry and draws upon various case studies to explore the ways in which this traditionalist industry can remain relevant in the 21st century The hotel experience has been redefined as guests now value fast Wi Fi and mobile check ins over room service and mini fridges Checking Out is an engaging investigation into the unprecedented challenges that face the hotel sector in the digital era and the strategies that are being employed by its leaders and innovators Trademarks Tom Blackett,2016-07-27 For many companies brands are now their most valuable assets yet there is insufficient knowledge within business in general of legal systems that exist to allow brand owners to protect these assets Equally few trademark lawyers fully understand the commercial significance of these legal systems for the success of brand based businesses Adopting an interdisciplinary approach Trademarks divulges the legal enigma to the brand owner and the business advantage of trademarking to the lawyer whilst providing a unique insight into all aspects of trademarking for all those fascinated by this channel for success Organizational Culture and Management Dr. Bahrullah Safi,Dr. Maurey Bond, Dr. Sarit J Levy,2023-09-27 Changing an organization s culture is important because it can help a business stay competitive attract top talent innovative new products or services and create a positive workplace that promotes collaboration By creating a strong company culture aligned with your organizational objectives you can increase employee productivity and therefore increase overall work output The majority of workers in the U S believe that organizational culture is one of the biggest influencers of their job performance Strategic International Marketing T C Melewar,Suraksha Gupta,2017-09-16 Strategic International Marketing collates the most recent ideas trends and original research in the theory and practice of global marketing strategy and tactics Straightforward language and illustrative case studies feature throughout this text from the leading thinkers in the international marketing field Ford Owner's Manual ,1955 Serviços Bibliográficos da Livraria Portugal Livraria Portugal.
