The CIM Handbook of Strategic Marketing Colin Egan, Michael Thomas, 2010-02-17 The CIM Handbook of Strategic Marketing targets senior executives responsible for shaping and managing the company's strategic direction The strategic dimensions of marketing management are emphasised along with the critical importance of matching the company's capabilities with genuinely attractive market sectors The Handbook's strategic perspective and pragmatic outlook pervade the text and underpin its practical foundations The rise of global competition and continuous innovation have redefined market structures reshaped industries and given customers unprecedented value and choice In this era of customer sovereignty there is a tremendous amount of pressure on organizations to adopt the principles of the marketing concept and to develop a much sharper strategic focus The CIM Handbook of Strategic Marketing is a reference source to guide effective marketing practice It provides supportive material for managers and employees who are building their marketing competence by attending training programmes and includes contributions from leading academics such as Peter Doyle Malcolm McDonald Nigel Piercy The book amounts to a firm blueprint written by leading marketing thinkers for designing and implementing effective marketing strategies and improving business performance Colin Egan is Professor of Strategic Management at Leicester Business School Michael J Thomas is Professor of Marketing at the University of Strathclyde Business School

Autocar, 2006 English as a Local Language Christina Higgins, 2009-07-08 When analyzed in multilingual contexts English is often treated as an entity that is separable from its linguistic environment It is often the case however that multilinguals use English in hybrid and transcultural ways This book explores how multilingual East Africans make use of English as a local resource in their everyday practices by examining a range of domains including workplace conversation beauty pageants hip hop and advertising Drawing on the Bakhtinian concept of multivocality the author uses discourse analysis and ethnographic approaches to demonstrate the range of linguistic and cultural hybridity found across these domains and to consider the constraints on hybridity in each context By focusing on the cultural and linguistic bricolage in which English is often found the book illustrates how multilinguals respond to the tension between local identification and dominant conceptualizations of English as a language for global communication

Key Debates in the Translation of Advertising Material Beverly Adab,Cristina Valdes,2016-04-01 Much has been written about the marketing aspects of promotional material in general and several scholars particularly in linguistics have addressed questions relating to the structure and function of advertisements focusing on images rhetorical structure semiotic functions discourse features and audio visual media amongst other aspects of the genre Not much on the other hand has been written within translation studies about the complexities involved in the transfer of an advertising message Contributors to this volume explore various interdependent aspects of the interlingual and intercultural transfer of an advertising message They emphasize features of culture specificity of multi medial semiotic interaction of values and stereotypes and most importantly they recommend strategies and approaches to assist translators Topics covered include a critique of the Western based approach to advertising in the context of the Far East different perceptions of the concept of cleanliness in advertising texts in Italy Russia and the UK the Walls Cornetto strategy of internationalization of product appeal followed by localization the role of the translator in recreating appeal in different lingua cultural contexts what constitutes Italianness in advertisements for British consumers and strategies for repackaging France as a tourist destination
