Form Of University Of Fort Hare:

Flow of Forms / Forms of Flow Kerstin Pinther, Alexandra Weigand, 2019-09-23 As a teenager I spent my time wondering why in sci fi movies every landscape every object I could see was Western or Asian based I've finally understood that somewhere our legacy had been locked in the past that we couldn't be futuristic in the eyes of our fellow Europeans We have to look behind our shoulders get back to our traditions seize the best of them and shape a future with it This without forgetting we are part of the world totally unquestionably The future is for me not only a matter of dialogue with the past but and beyond everything a dialogue with the rest of the planet Kossi Aguessy How is it possible to adequately capture histories of design in Africa a continent with fifty four countries How can one avoid producing just another essentialising master narrative of African Design How can one make sense of the many entangled yet often asymmetric and sometimes ambivalent histories of form finding processes between Africa and Europe In keeping with the premises of a global art and design history approach the book offers a change of perspective focusing on the mobility of people objects and ideas on flows between Africa and Europe as well as on a South South axis allows for multiple yet necessarily fragmented design histories to be identified and recognised The contributors trace multi faceted design case studies from a historical perspective with attention to the present as well as towards possible futures

Regional Financial Integration in Africa: Cross-listings as a Form of Regional Financial Integration Moses Wisdom Chisadza, 2014-02 This book looks at contemporary issues facing financial markets in Southern Africa It has been established that African stock markets are confronted with a multitude of problems which include inadequate liquidity low capitalisation few market participants a small number of listed companies and low trading volumes As a result their broader economic impact has so far been limited The Southern Africa Development Community SADC stock markets with the exception of South Africa are small both in terms of the number of listed companies and market capitalisation and they display considerable illiquidity In general the SADC region has shallow and underdeveloped financial markets Their development has been hampered by a number of factors which include political and economic uncertainty fiscal dominance weak judicial institutions limited investment opportunities in the private sector technological constraints and the shortage of skilled personnel with expertise in banking and finance

Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources especially on campuses located in impoverished communities It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic namely graduation certificates for sale assets of these institutions Jansen argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly

Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World Felicity Wood, 2018-04-17 Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World explores the metaphorical parallels between corporatised market oriented universities and aspects of the occult In the process the book shows that the forms of mystery mythmaking and ritual now common in restructured institutions of higher education stem from their new power structures and procedures and the economic and sociopolitical factors that have generated them Wood argues that universities have acquired occult aspects as the beliefs and practices underpinning present day market driven academic discourse and practice weave spells of corporate potency invoking the bewildering magic of the market and the arcane mysteries of capitalism thriving on equivocation and evasion Making particular reference to South African universities the book demonstrates the ways in which apparently rational features of contemporary Western and westernised societies have acquired occult aspects It also includes discussion of higher education institutions in other countries where neoliberal economic agendas are influential such as the UK the USA the Eurozone states and Australia Providing a unique and thought provoking look at the impact of the marketisation of Higher Education this book will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of higher education educational policy and neoliberalism It should also be of great interest to academics in the fields of anthropology folklore and cultural studies as well as business economics and management The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980

South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about A Social History of the University Presses in Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth Le Roux, 2015-10-14 In A History of the University Presses in Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth le Roux examines scholarly publishing history academic freedom and knowledge production during the apartheid era Using archival materials comprehensive bibliographies and political sociology theory this work analyses the origins publishing lists and philosophies of the university presses The university presses are often associated with anti apartheid publishing and the promotion of academic freedom but this work reveals both greater complicity and complexity Elizabeth le Roux demonstrates that the university presses cannot be considered oppositional because they did not resist censorship and because they operated within the constraints of the higher education system but their publishing strategies became more liberal over time Going to University Case, Jennifer, Marshall, Delia, 2018-02-09 Around the world more young people than ever before are attending university Student numbers in South Africa have doubled since democracy and for many families higher education is a route to a better future for their children But alongside the overwhelming demand for higher education questions about its purposes have intensified Deliberations about the curriculum culture and costing of public higher education abound from student activists academics parents civil society and policy makers We know from macro research that South African graduates generally have good employment prospects But little is known at a detailed level about how young people actually make use of their university experiences to craft their life courses And even less is known about what happens to those who drop out This accessible book brings together the rich life stories of 73 young people six years after they began their university studies It traces how going to university influences not only their employment options but also nurtures the agency needed to chart their own way and to engage critically with the world around them The book offers deep insights into the ways in which public higher education is both a private and public good and it provides significant conclusions pertinent to anyone who works in and cares about universities The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss Musical Bows of Southern Africa Sazi Dlamini, 2020-12-10 Musical Bows of Southern Africa brings together current scholarly research that documents a rich regional diversity as well as cultural relationships in bow music knowledge and contemporary practices The book is framed as a critical appraisal of traditional ethnomusicological studies of the region complementing pioneering studies and charting contexts for a contemporary engagement with bow music as an exchangeable cultural practice Each contribution is written by an expert in the field and collectively demonstrates the multidisciplinary potential of bow music highlighting the several fields of knowledge that intersect with bow music including ethno organology applied ethnomusicology composition music literacy social development cultural economics history orality performance and language
