Chicago Schools Journal ,1927 Sticks, Stones & Songs Eleanor Corey,2015-01-22 The author s parents come from respectable stock God honoring community centered and self made When her father Arthur Corey goes off the deep end of religion to become an itinerate preacher his relatives don t understand Nor does Margaret his wife nor does her extended family at least for a time The story is told in three parts Chronicle One begins in 1937 with Arthur s purchase of an abandoned grange hall that becomes the Grange House into which babies including the author are born one after another after another The children grow up within the shadow of a father s strong character and unpredictable style and under the tutelage of their faithful mother all the while living without electricity next to an outhouse where catalogs are used instead of toilet paper This clan becomes skilled in facing challenges with grit in adapting throwaways into tools and in building experiences into strengths Chronicle Two is the author s first person story beginning with her earliest memory The memory of taking apart the Grange House while living in it and carrying it down the highway piece by piece to build a barn like temporary shack that becomes the Farmhouse During the next twelve years the family grows by two more babies some in laws and multiple foster children All the while working toward the day that We finally have a real house Chronicle Three brings the entire clan together for the first time in 27 years at a family reunion a time of re acquaintance restoration and renewal Normal Instructor and Primary Plans ,1914 Resources in Education ,1998 Teach Spelling So it Sticks! Jane Bell Kiester,2008 The writing reading connection means more than having your students write under the influence of literature that they have read Noted author and educator Connie Campbell Dierking shows you how to develop a literacy connected classroom including using oral storytelling to scaffold primary reading and writing She supplies more than 50 mini lessons organized by their classroom function to help you explicitly teach foundational literacy skills during writer s workshop or whole class and small group reading instruction Dierking encourages you to make the most of the writing reading connection by thinking about some basic questions when you re crafting your literacy instruction How can I connect the conversations in reading and writing workshop What can I learn about the readers in my classroom through their writing What can my students learn about reading through writing How can I teach young writers to support their readers How can I teach readers how to use a writer s supports intentionally Conflict Resolution Education Donna K. Crawford,Richard J. Bodine,1996 Developed for educators juvenile justice practitioners and others in youth serving organizations to heighten awareness of conflict resolution education and its potential to help settle disputes peacefully in a variety of settings The guide provides background information on conflict resolution education an overview of four widely used promising and effective approaches and guidance on how to initiate and implement conflict resolution education programs in various settings Includes curriculum resources reading list glossary and assessment forms Charts and tables Handbook of Equality of Opportunity ,2024-07-12 This Handbook provides an authoritative exposition of equality of opportunity It presents the different concepts most commonly associated with equality of opportunity and discusses the many problems dominating the controversies on equality of opportunity at the theoretical policy or practical level The chapters give a concise exposition of the different conceptions and basic concepts of equal opportunities They clarify variables that are part of the algorithm of equal opportunities e g opportunity equality non discrimination fairness responsibility chance and choice excellence qualifications effort talent merit desert inequality and risk The idea of equality of opportunity has traditionally been associated with a set of largely unquestioned ideals and over the last 50 years it has been at the very centre of the major progressive social changes and firmly entrenched in political rhetoric Yet the idea of equality of opportunity is far from unquestionable or unproblematic as the only solid assumption different conceptions have in common is their rejection of fixed social relations but not hierarchy itself Disagreements over the fundamental principles criticism over the inefficiency of policies aiming to ensure equal opportunities and objections to their unfairness all pose questions that current conceptions answer in different ways This Handbook examines a wide variety of questions about issues of motivation procedures genealogy taxonomy and compensation
