with George Saunders Michael O'Connell, 2022-06-27 Besides being one of America's most celebrated living authors George Saunders b 1958 is also an excellent interview subject In the fourteen interviews included in Conversations with George Saunders covering nearly twenty years of his career the Booker Prize winning author of Lincoln in the Bardo and Tenth of December provides detailed insight into his own writing process and craft alongside nuanced interpretations of his own work He also delves into aspects of his biography including anecdotes from his childhood and his experiences as both a student and teacher in MFA programs as well as reflections on how parenthood affected his writing the role of religious belief and practice in his work and how he has dealt with his growing popularity and fame Throughout this collection we see him in conversation with former students fellow writers mainstream critics and literary scholars In each instance Saunders is eager to engage in meaningful dialogue about what he calls the big questions of our age In a number of interviews he reflects on the moral and ethical responsibility of fiction as well as how his work engages with issues of social and political commentary But at the same time these interviews like all of Saunders's best work are funny warm surprising and wise Saunders says he has always enjoyed doing interviews in part because he views intense respectful conversation as really an artform an exploration of sorts Readers of this volume will have the pleasure of joining him in this process of exploration
