different contexts in Turkey Each substantive chapter in the book analyses a different element that plays a role in constructing these different forms of Kurdishness state rhetoric localities and the language use By arguing that there is not one single way of exhibiting Kurdishness this book challenges any standard definitions of Kurdishness and defines it as the daily re negotiation of state rhetoric and everyday practices individuals experience Being Digital Citizens Engin Isin,Evelyn Ruppert,2020-05-27 This book examines how citizens encounter and perform new sorts of rights duties opportunities and challenges through the Internet By disrupting prevailing understandings of citizenship and cyberspace the authors highlight the dynamic relationship between these two concepts This new and updated edition includes a new preface and a new chapter exploring digital citizens of the future Bridging Educational Leadership, Curriculum Theory and Didaktik Michael Uljens,Rose M. Ylimaki,2017-10-04 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This volume argues for the need of a common ground that bridges leadership studies curriculum theory and Didaktik It proposes a non affirmative education theory and its core concepts along with discursive institutionalism as an analytical tool to bridge these fields It concludes with implications of its coherent theoretical framing for future empirical research Recent neoliberal policies and transnational governance practices point toward new tensions in nation state education These challenges affect governance leadership and curriculum involving changes in aims and values that demand coherence Yet the traditionally disparate fields of educational leadership curriculum theory and Didaktik have developed separately both in terms of approaches to theory and theorizing in USA Europe and Asia and in the ways in which these theoretical traditions have informed empirical studies over time An additional aspect is that modern education theory was developed in relation to nation state education which in the meantime has become more complicated due to issues of globalism This volume examines the current state of affairs and addresses the issues involved In doing so it opens up a space for a renewed and thoughtful dialogue to rethink and re theorize these traditions with non affirmative education theory moving beyond social reproduction and social transformation perspectives
