

FAREWELL SPEECH BY STUDENTS

- Saying goodbye to your friend is one of the most difficult things that school never taught us.
- I am a person who believes in the cycle of life and hence I don't believe in the concept of goodbye.
- Farewell party is just to mark the end of our school life and not the end of our friendship.
- I am going to miss each and every one of you on the campus, whether it's my friend's, fellow classmates, juniors, seniors, teachers, dean and all the non-teaching faculties.
- Let us all look forward to our future and bring laurels to our college who has given us so much knowledge and helped us build our personality.
- I am sure our juniors have planned some fantastic things for us today, so let us it back and enjoy our farewell party.
- As much as I am sad to leave this campus and go away, I am looking forward to the beautiful future that is waiting for us.
- As much as we hate to study and all the project works and assignments that our teachers gave us, we can say with confidence that they have moulded us into better students and we are ready to take on the challenges in life.
- The farewell day is the only day where you have got the chance to tell anything to anyone that you had in your heart for a very long time.
- Let us all promise that farewell day is not the last day that you are going to see each other. Let us promise that we are going to stay in touch with each other no matter what.

Text-Dependent Questions, Grades 6-12 Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Heather Anderson, Marisol Thayre, 2014-09-02 Fisher Frey's answer to close and critical reading. Learn the best ways to use text dependent questions as scaffolds during close reading and the big understandings they yield. But that's just for starters. Fisher and Frey also include illustrative video texts and questions, cross-curricular examples, and an online facilitator's guide, making the two volumes of TDQ a potent professional development tool across all of K-12. The genius of TDQ is the way Fisher and Frey break down the process into four cognitive pathways: What does the text say? How does the text work? What does the text mean? What does the text inspire you to do?

Teaching Discipline-Specific Literacies in Grades 6-12 Vicky I. Zygmouris-Coe, 2014-10-30 Comprehensive, timely, and relevant, this text offers an approach to discipline-specific literacy instruction that is aligned with the Common Core State Standards and the needs of teachers, students, and secondary schools across the nation. It is essential that teachers know how to provide instruction that both develops content and literacy knowledge and skills and aims at reducing student achievement gaps. Building on the research-supported premise that discipline-specific reading instruction is key to achieving these goals, this text provides practical guidance and strategies for prospective and practicing content area teachers and other educators on how to prepare all students to succeed in college and the workforce. Pedagogical features in each chapter engage readers in digging deeper and in applying the ideas and strategies presented in their own contexts. Classroom Life: real 6-12 classroom scenarios and interviews with content area teachers. Common Core State Standards Connections: College, Career, and Workforce Connections. Applying Discipline-Specific Literacies: Think Like an Expert, habits of thinking and learning specific to each discipline. Digital Literacies: Differentiating Instruction, Reflect and Apply, Questions Extending Learning Activities. The Companion Website includes Lesson plan resources, Annotated links to video files, Annotated links to additional resources and information, Glossary, Flashcards For Instructors. All images and figures used in the text provided in an easily downloadable format For Instructors: PowerPoint lecture slides.
