Research in Education , 1974

Student Affairs Lesley Andres, Finola Finlay, 2005-05 Who has access to higher education today At what financial and personal cost Based on what conditions and criteria How do students describe and interpret their experiences And how can institutions facilitate and constrain successful participation and completion These research studies extend current understandings of what it is to be a student in higher education by embracing the dynamic relationship between students as agents and institutions as living structures which impact on their lives Focusing on the diverse experiences of today's non-traditional and traditional students researchers explore how and why institutional rhetoric of inclusion engagement gender and access may or may not be reflected in the reality of students' experiences Student Affairs moves from theory to application by suggesting realistic strategies for addressing the challenges surrounding the interrelation of students and institutions Each essay analyzes issues of access and participation in programs ranging from community college development studies to graduate studies As a whole this collection is a testament to how much institutional change has occurred in the social organization of postsecondary education and how much more change is required to meet the challenge of equitable access and inclusion

Removing Barriers Jill M. Bystydzienski, Sharon R. Bird, 2006-03-20 Movement into academic science technology engineering and mathematics STEM fields has been slow for women and minorities Not only are women and minorities underrepresented in STEM careers there is strong evidence that many academic departments are resistant to addressing the concerns that keep them from entering careers in these fields In light of recent controversies surrounding these issues this volume examines reasons for the persistence of barriers that block the full participation and advancement of underrepresented groups in the sciences and addresses how academic departments and universities can remedy the situation is particularly timely As a whole the volume shows positive examples of institutions and departments that have been transformed by the inclusion of women and recommends a set of best practices for continuing growth in positive directions
