The Great Music City Andrea Baker, 2019-03-01 In the 1960s as gentrification took hold of New York City Jane Jacobs predicted that the city would become the true player in the global system Indeed in the 21st century more meaningful comparisons can be made between cities than between nations and states Based on case studies of Melbourne Austin and Berlin this book is the first in depth study to combine academic and industry analysis of the music cities phenomenon Using four distinctly defined algorithms as benchmarks it interrogates Richard Florida s creative cities thesis and applies a much needed synergy of urban sociology and musicology to the concept mediated by a journalism lens Building on seminal work by Robert Park Lewis Mumford and Jane Jacobs it argues that journalists are the cultural branders and street theorists whose ethnographic approach offers critical insights into the urban sociability of music activity

DIY House Shows and Music Venues in the US David Verbuč, 2021-09-29 DIY House Shows and Music Venues in the US is an interdisciplinary study of house concerts and other types of DIY do it yourself music venues and events in the United States such as warehouses all ages clubs and guerrilla shows with its primary focus on West Coast American DIY locales It approaches the subject not only through a cultural analysis of sound and discourse as it is common in popular music studies but primarily through an ethnographic examination of place space and community Focusing on DIY houses music venues social spaces and local and translocal cultural geographies the author examines how American DIY communities constitute themselves in relation to their social and spatial environment The ethnographic approach shows the inner workings of American DIY culture and how the particular people within particular places strive to achieve a social ideal of an intimate community This research contributes to the sparse range of Western popular music studies especially regarding rock punk and experimental music that approach their subject matter through a participatory ethnographic research Redesigning Manufacturing M. Beverland, B. Nielsen, V. Pryce, Ellen Hellmann, 2015-05-13 Manufacturing in the UK has an image problem Although this image problem is more fiction than fact it nonetheless has an impact on the sector's ability to attract staff capital and policy interest This book redresses this situation by focusing on the real successes of the sector and the strategies used by makers to achieve sustainable results

The Impact of Artists on Contemporary Urban Development in Europe Monika Murzyn-Kupisz, Jarosław Działek, 2017-04-04 This book provides an up to date critical review of theoretical concepts connecting artists and urban development It focuses on the multidimensionality of potential and actually observed interactions between artists and cities and their impacts on urban space its form functions and perceptions Departing from the viewpoint that a more nuanced geography of artists is still needed to fully conceptualise the diversity of roles artistic creatives play in urban transformations the book presents contributions with a common denominator of distinguishing artists as a unique professional and social group The essays focus on the complexity of the artists spatial preferences and analyse a myriad of expressions of artists presence in urban centres in different geographic political economic social and spatial contexts drawing on experiences from 16 cities across Europe The book presents several case studies ranging from Spain to Russia and from Scandinavia to Slovenia and offers new pathways into understanding the implications of artists residence and activities in contemporary cities Apart from presenting less obvious expressions of artists involvement in urban transformations such as their participation in urban planning or grass root urban movements the volume explores the ambivalence of artists interactions with cities Particular chapters test several divergent narratives of artistic creatives as inspirers and instigators of urban changes pioneers of gentrification contesters and resisters of neoliberal urban policies or mere indicators of transformations inspired by other actors instrumentalized by public and private stakeholders General Knowledge 2018 Capsule with Current Affairs Update 2nd Edition Disha Experts, 2017-07-10 The thoroughly revised update 2nd edition of the book General Knowledge 2018 Capsule has been written with the objective to provide short and crisp information required to crack the various competitive exams also The book will update your knowledge about India World the who's who and day to day events happening around the globe The most important feature of the book is the collection of the most relevant information useful for all your needs Quick General Knowledge 2018 provides A comprehensive study of all the
