The Modern Language Association (MLA) provides guidelines for documentation style. This template is based on commonly used guidelines from the MLA Handbook (8th edition). For the most up to date information about MLA style and publications, go to the MLA website at: www.mla.org. In MLA format, titles are centered and written in 12-point, easy-to-read fonts like Times New Roman. The title is not bolded, underlined, or italicized. In addition, MLA format requires double-spacing throughout a document.

In MLA format, quotations with fewer than four lines of prose or three lines of verse are quoted directly in the sentence. These lines must be enclosed in quotation marks, followed by the author's last name and the page or pages of the source from which you are quoting in parenthesis, for example: "inline quotation here" (AuthorLastName 31). Note: The end punctuation follows the parenthesis.

On the other hand, quotations that are longer than four lines of prose or three lines of verse follow different guidelines. These quotations are introduced with a colon:

Start long quotations on a new line. Indent the quote one inch from the left margin. Double-space the lines and omit quotation marks. Reference the source as you would for a shorter quotation. To quickly format a quotation of over four lines or three lines of verse, use the Long quotation style provided in this

The Bedford Guide for College Writers with Reader, Research Manual, and Handbook with 2009 MLA and 2010 APA Updates X. J. Kennedy, Dorothy M. Kennedy, Marcia F. Muth, 2010-04 When it was first published twenty years ago, The Bedford Guide for College Writers brought a lively and innovative new approach to the teaching of writing. Since that time, authors X. J. and Dorothy M. Kennedy have won praise for their friendly tone and their view apparent on every page of the text that writing is the usually surprising, often rewarding art of thinking while working with language. More recently, experienced teacher and writer Marcia F. Muth joined the author team, adding more practical advice to help all students, even those underprepared for college work, become successful academic writers. While retaining the highly praised Kennedy touch, The Bedford Guide continues to evolve to meet classroom needs. The new edition does even more to build essential academic writing skills with expanded coverage of audience analysis, source-based writing, argumentation, and reasoning, and more.

Rules for Writers with Writing about Literature (Tabbed Version) Diana Hacker, Nancy Sommers, 2012-01-16 When it comes to value, Rules for Writers is a college writer's companion that covers writing, grammar, research, and documentation in an extremely affordable and portable spiral-bound format. From the best-selling family of handbooks, Rules has consistently been the best value for college writers. Now it's even more so. The Seventh Edition actually teaches students how to make better use of their handbook. With new material about how to integrate the handbook into lessons and class activities, Rules for Writers is an even more useful tool for instructors. We like Rules because it's affordable, easy to use, and flexible enough for multiple courses.

Scholarly Information Discovery in the Networked Academic Learning Environment LiLi Li, 2014-09-10 In the dynamic and interactive academic learning environment, students are required to have qualified information literacy competencies.

while critically reviewing print and electronic information. However, many undergraduates encounter difficulties in searching peer-reviewed information resources. Scholarly Information Discovery in the Networked Academic Learning Environment is a practical guide for students determined to improve their academic performance and career development in the digital age. Also written with academic instructors and librarians in mind who need to show their students how to access and search academic information resources and services, the book serves as a reference to promote information literacy instructions. This title consists of four parts with chapters on the search for online and printed information via current academic information resources and services. Part one examines understanding information and information literacy; part two looks at academic information delivery in the networked world; part three covers searching for information in the academic learning environment; and part four discusses searching and utilizing needed information in the future in order to be more successful beyond the academic world. Provides a reference guide for motivated students who want to improve their academic performance and career development in the digital age. Lays out a roadmap for searching peer-reviewed scholarly information in dynamic and interactive academic learning environments. Explains how to access and utilize academic information ethically, legally, and safely in public-accessed computing environments. Provides brainstorming and discussion case studies, mini-tests, and real-world examples for instructors and students to promote skills in critical thinking, decision making, and problem solving.
