Light Can Be Both Wave and Particle Ellen Gilchrist, 2020-04-30 Fiction from a National Book Award winning author and short story writer of substantial gifts and reputation The New York Times From National Book Award Winner Ellen Gilchrist a pillar of Southern literature hailed by the Washington Post as a national treasure comes a colorful collection of short stories integrating favorite characters with captivating newcomers Rhoda's reveling in her childhood and infinite possibility in The Tree Fort and The Time Capsule is juxtaposed with her darker adulthood in Mexico Nora Jane returns alongside Lin Tan Sing a Chinese medical student and geneticist who predicts the birth of her twins Fans of Gilchrist won't want to miss the author's exploration of the many stages of life and the lightness and darkness each can bring Several stories in Gilchrist s latest collection are distinguished by her old magic they have energy and gusto and humor and a dark layer of knowledge beneath their nostalgic tone Publishers Weekly A validation of the author s skill and versatility Gilchrist creates new experiences for characters from earlier stories and creates new characters who reveal her skill in portraying character and place Library Journal Prizing Scottish Literature Stevie Marsden,2021-02-15 This cultural history of the Saltire Society Literary Awards demonstrates the significance the awards have had within Scottish literary and cultural life It is one piece of the wider cultural award puzzle and illustrates how far from being parochial or niche lesser known awards whose histories may be yet untold play their own role in the circulation of cultural value through the consecration of literary value The study of the Society s Book of the Year and First Book of the Year Awards not only highlights how important connections between literary awards and national culture and identity are within prize culture and how literary awards and their founding institutions can be products of the socio political and cultural milieu in which they form but this study also illustrates how existing literary award scholarship has only begun to scratch the surface of the complexities of the phenomenon This book promotes a new approach to considering literary prizes proposing that the concept of the literary awards hierarchy can contribute to emerging and developing discourses pertaining to literary and indeed cultural prizes more broadly How to be an Even Better Manager Michael Armstrong,2014-04-03 This ninth edition of the best selling How to be an Even Better Manager covers over 60 essential topics across the three key areas in which any manager needs to be competent managing people managing activities and processes and managing and developing yourself Thoroughly revised and updated with ten new chapters providing timely advice on topics such as coaching developing emotional intelligence innovating and effectively using financial ratios and balance sheets this is an invaluable handbook for current and aspiring managers How to be an Even Better Manager provides sound guidelines that will help you to develop a broad base of managerial skills and knowledge How to Be a Friend to a Friend Who's Sick Letty Cottin Pogrebin,2013-04-09 Everyone knows someone who s sick or suffering Yet when a friend or relative is under duress many of us feel uncertain about how to cope Throughout her recent bout with breast cancer Letty Cottin Pogrebin became fascinated by her friends and family s diverse reactions to her and her illness how awkwardly some of them behaved how some misspoke or misinterpreted her needs and how wonderful it was when people read her right She began talking to her fellow patients and dozens of other veterans of serious illness seeking to discover what sick people wished their friends knew about how best to comfort help and even simply talk to them Now Pogrebin has distilled their collective stories and opinions into this wide ranging compendium of pragmatic guidance and usable wisdom Her advice is always infused with sensitivity warmth and humor It is embedded in candid stories from her own and others journeys and their sometimes imperfect interactions with well meaning friends How to Be a Friend to a Friend Who s Sick is an invaluable guidebook for anyone hoping to rise to the challenges of this most important and demanding passage of friendship How to Be Good with Words Don LePan, Laura Buzzard, Maureen Okun, 2017-02-25 In recent decades the contested areas of English usage have grown both larger and more numerous English speakers argue about whether we should say man or humanity fisher or fisherman whether we ought to speak of people as being disabled or challenged or differently abled whether it is acceptable to say that s so gay More generally we ask can we use language in ways that avoid giving expression to prejudices embedded within it Can the words we use help us point a way towards a better world Can we ask such questions with appropriate seriousness while remaining open minded and while retaining our sense of humor To all these questions this concise and user friendly guide answers yes while offering clear headed discussions of many of the key issues Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber, Alice Bell, 2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies How to Be Free Shaka Senhgor, 2025-09-09 Embrace joy reclaim your narrative and achieve your wildest dreams in business and beyond with this inspiring hands on guide to transforming your life with proven meditation mindfulness and creative exercises from Shaka Senhgor an extraordinary New York Times bestselling author and entrepreneur who overcame mental roadblocks and transformed his self esteem after incarceration When Shaka received his second parole denial after 18 years behind bars he had a choice to make surrender to despair or transform himself from within He chose hope Using daily practices like journaling meditation mindfulness and creative expression he turned his vision into action and discovered how to break free everything holding him back so he could step into his true potential And when he did he realized his greatest barriers existed within his own mind past narratives survivor s remorse fear and the inability to forgive This awakening led him to discover universal truths about freedom that apply far beyond prison walls and transform every aspect of life from deepening our relationships to achieving career success Through raw and powerful storytelling Shaka reveals how we all grapple with invisible chains that hold us back Drawing from the profound lessons of his remarkable journey from solitary to the C suite he provides more than inspiration he delivers a proven roadmap to transform your life Doing Without Concepts Edouard Machery, 2009-02-27 In Doing without Concepts Edouard Machery argues that the dominant psychological theories of concept fail to provide a coherent framework to organize our extensive empirical knowledge about concepts Machery proposes that to develop such a framework drastic conceptual changes are required

Critical Perspectives on Max Porter David Rudrum, Paweł Wojtas, Wojciech Drąg, 2024-02-27 Max Porter is amongst the most exciting British writers of the twenty first century His striking books straddle the divide between poetry and prose as deftly as they combine literary experimentation with mainstream success This book is the first study of his works to date which encompass Grief Is the Thing with Feathers 2015 Lanny 2019 The Death of Francis Bacon 2021 and Shy 2023 It features a broad interdisciplinary array of essays by poets novelists literary critics art historians and educationalists which collectively place Porter's works in their contexts shed light on his artistic vision and interpret his texts from a range of critical perspectives The volume's 12 chapters combine readings of the literary formal intertextual and experimental aspects of Porter's works with discussions of their relation to social political and ethical questions whilst placing them in dialogue with highly topical critical and cultural debates such as Englishness in the aftermath of Brexit ecocriticism affectivity and posthumanism

International Perspectives on Multilingual Literatures Katie Jones, Julian Preece, Aled Rees, 2020-10-28 This carefully curated collection of essays charts interactions between majority languages including English French German Italian and Japanese and minority dialects or languages pushed to the margins including Arabic Bengali Esperanto Neapolitan and Welsh through a series of case studies of leading modern and contemporary cultural producers The contributors who work and study across the globe extend critical understanding of literary multilingualism to the subjects of migration and the exophonic self translation and the aesthetics of interlinguistic bricolage language death and language perseveration and power in linguistic hierarchies in post colonial contexts Their subjects include the authors Julia Alvarez Elena Ferrante Jonathan Franzen Amalie Nothomb Ali Smith Yoko Tawada and Dylan Thomas the film maker Ulrike Ottinger and the anonymous performers of Griko The volume will be of interest to students of creative writing literature translation and sociolinguistics

Contemporary Fictions of Attention Alice Bennett, 2018-08-09 With the supposed shortening of our attention spans what future is there for fiction in the age of the internet Contemporary Fictions of Attention rejects this discourse of distraction crisis which suggests that the future of reading is in peril and instead finds that contemporary writers construct fictions of attention that find some value in states or moments of inattention Through discussion of work by a diverse selection of writers including Joshua Cohen Ben Lerner Tom McCarthy Ali Smith Zadie Smith and David Foster Wallace this book identifies how fiction prompts readers to become peripherally aware of their own attention Contemporary Fictions of Attention locates a common interest in attention within 21st century fiction and connects this interest to a series of debates surrounding ethics temporality the everyday boredom work and self discipline in contemporary culture

Ethics and Aesthetics in Ali Smith's Fiction José I. Prieto-Arranz, 2025-08-04 This study offers a fresh perspective on Ali Smith's work analysing her fiction through a truly interdisciplinary lens Jos I Prieto

Arranz explores Smith's engagement with contemporary issues such as digital violence, disinformation, pornography, nationalism, climate change, discrimination, and social fracture. Simultaneously, this book examines Smith's unique stylistic choices, including her use of magical realism, intertextuality, and intermediality, to reveal the intricate connection between the ethical and aesthetic dimensions of her novels. Through close readings of Smith's novels from Like to Companion, Piece, enriched with insights from her prolific short fiction, the author demonstrates how Smith constructs a text continuum revealing recurrent themes and stylistic choices that underline her firm belief in the transformative power of fiction and, by extension, art. This book will appeal to scholars of contemporary literature, art theory, political science, sociology, and cultural studies, and anyone interested in literature and social commentary.

Queer and Feminist Theories of Narrative Tory Young, 2021-05-13. This book argues for the importance of narrative theories which consider gender and sexuality through the analysis of a diverse range of texts and media. Classical Narratology, an allegedly neutral descriptive system for features of narrative, has been replaced by a diverse set of theories which are attentive to the contexts in which narratives are composed and received. Issues of gender and sexuality have nevertheless been sidelined by new strands which consider, for example, cognitive, transmedial, national, or historical inflections. Instead, through consideration of texts including the MTV series Faking It and the papers of a nineteenth-century activist, Queer and Feminist Theories of Narrative heeds the original call of feminist narratologists for the consideration of a broader and larger corpus of material. Through analysis of issues including the popular representation of lesbian desire, the queer narrative voice, invisibility and power in the digital age, embodiment, and cognitive narratology, reading and racial codes, this book argues that a named strand of narrative theory which employs feminist and queer theories as intersectional vectors is contemporary and urgent. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice.

How to Be Disabled in a Pandemic Mara Mills, Harris Kornstein, Faye Ginsburg, Rayna Rapp, 2025-02-25. A chronicle of ableism and disability activism in New York City during the COVID-19 pandemic, How to Be Disabled in a Pandemic documents the pivotal experiences of disabled people living in an early epicenter of COVID-19, New York City. Among those hardest hit by the pandemic, disability communities across the five boroughs have been disproportionately impacted by city and national policies work and housing conditions stigma racism and violence as much as by the virus itself Disabled and chronically ill activists have protested plans for medical rationing and refuted the eugenic logic of mainstream politicians and journalists who reassure audiences that only older people and those with disabilities continue to die from COVID 19 At the same time as exemplified by the viral hashtag DisabledPeopleToldYou disability expertise has become widely recognized in practices such as accessible remote work and education quarantine and distributed networks of support and mutual aid This edited volume charts the legacies of this mass disabling event for uncertain viral futures exploring the dialectic between disproportionate risk and the creativity of a disability justice response

How to Be Disabled in a Pandemic includes contributions by wide ranging disability scholars writers and activists whose research and lived experiences chronicle the pandemic s impacts in prisons migrant detention centers Chinatown senior centers hospitals in Queens and the Bronx subways schools housing shelters social media and other locations of public and private life By focusing on New York City over the course of three years the book reveals key themes of the pandemic including hierarchies of disability vulnerability the deployment of disability as a tool of population management and innovative crip pandemic cultural production How to Be Disabled in a Pandemic honors those lost as well as those who survived by calling for just policies and caring infrastructures not only in times of crisis but for the long haul
