Internet Oliver H. U. Heathcote,2002 Perhaps everything about the Internet leaves you feeling confused and puzzled or maybe you've seen it briefly and need more information. There has never been a better time to start. Whether you want to look up train times, think up questions for a trivia quiz, or e-mail your cousins in Australia, this book takes you through it in simple, straightforward English. Internet Right from the Start is a useful guide for 16-18 year olds on introductory ICT courses and adults either at work attending evening class or learning on a home PC. This book develops ICT skills starting from the very basics through to an intermediate level. You will learn how to look up and search for information on the Internet, use maps sites to get directions if you are going somewhere unfamiliar, download pictures, music and software, shop for groceries, CDs or even a house online, e-mail documents and photos across the world for the cost of a local phone call, chat with friends and colleagues online, saving text and graphics.
