Kontrol I Det Stille:

Psychodynamic Organisational Theory Jacob Alsted, Ditte Haslund, 2019-09-02 On the surface people go to work and come home again They sometimes manage people while most are managed themselves But beneath the function and structures of the work itself a whole range of emotions affects the success of the relationship between employee and manager and ultimately the organisation they both belong to Psychodynamic Organisational Theory Key Concepts and Cases provides a comprehensive but accessible introduction to this fascinating field of study Featuring case vignettes which bring the various concepts to life the book is divided into four parts Part I looks at how the individual relates to the organisation and the unconscious energies they bring while Part II examines group dynamics and how they affect productivity including a chapter on meetings Part III explores the realm of leadership and what roles a manager can play in managing their staff while Part IV introduces the idea of personality and describes how the manager's personality influences management dynamics as well as the wider organisational culture Central to the book as well as the idea that organisational phenomena are often unconscious is the understanding that relationships are always reciprocal Through complex psychological dynamics manager and employee influence and change each other during the process of managing and being managed This text will be essential reading for students and scholars of leadership HRM and organizational psychology as well as consultants and managers looking for practical insights into how human relationships affect the success of every organisation School

Boards in the Governance Process Leif Moos, Jan Merok Paulsen, 2014-04-28 This book analyses local school district governance in a comparative cross cultural perspective based on national studies of local school boards in the Nordic countries Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden The overarching research question explored by the national studies contained in this volume is How are transnational influences of standardization and accountability alongside national policies transformed into local policy cultures by the school boards In all the Nordic countries the municipalities are equivalent with the school district level and municipalities as such play a role as the interface between state policies and the schools This book discusses the variation across different national systems in the Nordic countries in the degree of decentralism as well as the processes through which sources of political autonomy are put into practice by school boards It explores the interplay between context and policy making at the local level and analyses how local discourses expressed by school boards differ from national policies and transnational influences The book's analysis of the country cases and thematic chapters shows that there are both important similarities and significant differences in governance functions power relations and understandings of school board chairs and members between the countries studied Moreover the book analyses the many ways in which these similarities and differences affect the work context of school leaders and teachers in the Nordic countries Successful Principal Leadership in Times of Change Christopher Day, Kenneth Leithwood, 2007-05-05 This book contributes significantly to our understanding of successful school leaders by describing similarities and differences in the work of such leaders in countries ranging from England to Australia the United States to Norway and Sweden to Hong Kong Bringing together case study research the book helps explain what all successful principals do and the ways in which context shapes some of their work Transformative Leadership and Educational Excellence ,2009-01-01 On records the evolution of human development pays a considerable tribute to the relentless efforts made by generations of teacher educators set out to train academic leaders and teachers committed to the implementation of educational policies parallel to the mental edification of young students Teacher educators faced the challenges overcame the obstacles and refined the pedagogies of our educational system with many innovative approaches As the world faces increasing uncertainties and adamant shifts of knowledge economy it is apparent that education plays an ultimate role in creating adept and geared up citizens to lead the way to the future Designing and managing learning school organizations that can sustain a competitive advantage in this fast changing environment demands transformative leaders primed and ready to the building or our intellectual capital for the future Many books on teacher education educational management and leadership have been written in the past but most of them do not keep up with the fast changing educational scene and only a few include future scenarios This book presents the anticipated trends and demands of the new knowledge economy and it aims to achieve its goals with the use of various tools generative and collaborative efforts increasing leadership capability in dynamic and complex contexts enculturation of cutting edge knowledge for educational advancement and creation of teams that focus learning organizations This book brings together prominent and leading teacher educators and researchers from around the world to present their scholarship theories and practice case studies state of the art approaches and upshot predictions This book embodies collective knowledge inquiry and represents professional conversations The chapters provides information on recent trends and development in teacher education the important role of educational management and leadership in educational transformations and promising practices for desired outcomes The book is a critical and specialized resource that describes how transformative leadership can play an important role in achieving excellence in education The topics covered are Educational Leadership and Effective Teaching Research in Transformational Leadership and Professional Development and Social Capital Building in Schools Relational Perspectives on Leading Mette Vinther Larsen,2015-06-09 Relational Perspectives on Leading discusses leadership from a relational and social constructionism perspective as practiced on an everyday basis between people The book pursues a fast growing practice based approach particularly within the Anglo Saxon parts of the world to organization studies and organizational phenomena Cultural Analysis Hans Gullestrup,2006 With internationalization the world is becoming smaller and the opportunity to meet people from other countries and cultures is becoming more common providing the need for cooperation shared knowledge and cross border trade Individual cultures tend to understand themselves best and base their understanding of the world and its peoples on ideas they each have come to believe irrespective of reality and thus make it difficult to reach a proper understanding of other cultures This book considers intercultural understanding and co action partly by means of general insights into the concept of culture and the dimensions which bring about cultural differences and partly as a methodology to analyze a certain culture whether one s own or others This leads towards an understanding of cultural complexity and cultural differences among people The book provides a discussion of a number of ethical issues which almost invariably will arise when people meet and co act across cultural boundaries Cultural Analysis offers a theoretical abstract proposal for cultural understanding intercultural plurality and complexity

Structural Equation Modeling in Educational Research ,2009-01-01 Over the years researchers have developed statistical methods to help them investigate and interpret issues of interest in many discipline areas These methods range from descriptive to inferential to multivariate statistics As the psychometrics measures in education become more complex vigorous and robust methods were needed in order to represent research data efficiently One such method is Structural Equation Modeling SEM SEM is a statistical technique that allows the simultaneous analysis of a series of structural equations It also allows a dependent variable in one equation to become an independent variable in another equation It is a comprehensive statistical approach to testing hypotheses about relations among observed and latent variables SEM is commonly known as causal modeling or path analysis which hypothesizes causal relationships among variables and tests the causal models with a linear equation system As educational research questions become more complex they need to be evaluated with more sophisticated tools The pervasive use of SEM in the literature has shown that SEM has a potential to be of assistance to modern educational researchers This book will bring together prominent educators and researchers from around the world to share their contemporary research on structural equation modeling in educational settings The chapters provide information on recent trends and developments and effective applications of the different models to answer various educational research questions This book is a critical and specialized source that describes recent advances in SEM in international academia

Power in the Anthropocene Lars Tonder, 2025-03-31 Power in the Anthropocene offers a unique approach to the study of power in a time of multiple ecological crises Drawing on insights from Jane Bennett Donna Haraway Bruno Latour and others the book introduces a new materialist framework and opens up innovative avenues for expanding democracy and political mobilization The book is the first of its kind to link the study of power to debates about the Anthropocene and it outlines a new agenda for interdisciplinary research that combines insights from both the natural sciences and the social sciences including ecofeminism sustainability science indigenous studies and environmental political theory

Deontology, Responsibility, and Equality Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen, 2005 Three questions that loom large in moral and political philosophy are these Can deontological moral constraints be justified When if ever are we morally responsible for what we do How is the ideal of equality best configured Deontology Responsibility and Equality deals with selected aspects of these three broad questions It critically discusses certain attempts by Frances Kamm and Thomas Nagel among others to account for the impermissibility of minimizing violations in terms of moral status Also it challenges the view that there is a morally relevant difference between doing and allowing harm and especially between killing and letting die In relation to the second question it concentrates on recent developments within compatibilist accounts of moral responsibility prompted by the work of Harry Frankfurt It challenges his purported refutation of the principle of alternative possibilities as well as certain positive compatibilist identification based accounts of respon

To Be Spirituel Ashtar Starlight, 2025-07-04 It is about the Character Ashtar who lives in a world of his own His own Spirituel Reality Being that he makes references to his own life and how he understand his own Ego And insight in how he does what he do and why This is the First Part of the claims layed within the writting A more Theoretical One follow this one Enough

can be said but understanding only comes when read in the Raw edition of all his mistakes as a Writer This Version Ashtar takes You into a world of his mind And how he with his Perspective of Life tries to tell the Reader how to be his way of Being Spirituel He made a Prediction some 12 years ago Where he wrote his Blueprint of what he would explain in the future He called that Writting The Tale of a tapeworm and human evolution Witch is second part of To Be Spirituel There lays 4 different Parts of To Be Spirituel Within this writting The fifth layes as a part of its own Science that might not be for all to understand At current point of evolution According to Ashtar He has a very speziel way of understanding God Devil and Rebirth or Reincarnation As explained in the writting Even thou Ashtar lives amongst his Family The believe that there is something Wrong with him Being that he has a diagnose as SKizofrenic He tries with this writting To Explain what a Skizofrenic usually do not and can not explain His claim is that he is Spirituel and not Skizofrenic But no one ever ask for an explanation from him He was just deemed Skizofrenic So this is what he does with this writting He gives an insight in how it is to be inside his mindset by provided explanations Like Talking with himself and Hearing Voices He say I do not hear voices I have Thoughts That is an answer within the Collective conscience The language use and his ways of explaining Can at some point be very brute and viel in its use of words and expression Just so You are warned He also provided some sort of explanation on that it has to do about Intentions In what You put in it Understanding his mindset For all the Mistakes he makes like when he do writtings He focus on the message not how it is spelled Do not judge a book by its cover Even with Mistakes in the title

Beyond Structure and Rationality Jan Molin,1987 The occasion for the project was the change in the administration of the handicapped within the public sector and the objective of the research process was to monitor the organizational response to this mandatory change in task The project was intended to be a process of action research that included two aspects first of all an intensive comparative analysis of four public organizations facing the new task of administrating the handicapped and secondly to create a participatory scheme of organizational change in one of the four public organizations After discussing the data in the research group and after analyzing the pictures of the four organizations that emerged from the analysis we were astonished to find that among the four departments there were no less than three very different organizational responses to the new task of administrating the handicapped clients
