

Farewell Speech

Good Morning Rotary members of the Castlegar Sunrise Club, Good Morning guests! Thank you for coming to the meeting today and thank you very much for giving me the opportunity to speak here today. It has been a wonderful year with you!

Exactly 318 days ago I arrived in Castlegar. Sitting in the small plane from Vancouver was a little bit scary for me especially when we came closer to Castlegar. Looking out of the window, I saw its gorgeous scenery but there was one problem: the river. My little plane was so low when it flew over the river and I could not see an airport. I was afraid we would land in the river. Luckily, we didn't. I was quite happy about that even though it was sunny weather.

When I finally entered the entrance hall of the airport I was cordially received from Kay, David, and some other people. In spite of my jetlag, I was not tired at all. It was so exciting to see all the new faces. My journey had just begun.

After a couple of days, school began for me and that was one of the major differences this year. It took me a little bit of time to adjust. Instead of fourteen I had only four subjects per semester. My choices were Metal Work, English 12, Communication, and P.E. . I was very excited for the first day. First of all, I had to take a school bus which was new for me. At home, I live ten minutes away from school and school buses like that do not exist. These yellow old- fashioned school buses reminded me of old movies.

The first days in school were interesting. Soon I realized that it would be a relaxing semester for me. I understood most of what my teachers taught and did not have problems orienting in school. My classes were twice as long as I was used to. That was hard at the beginning but I got over it quickly. The next difference was lunch. I had never had a lunch break before; we have two fifteen minute breaks after two lessons at home. Lunch was nice to relax and to discover other places in school. After a while, I discovered the library which was also something new for me. Sitting in the library at lunch was fantastic. I loved the atmosphere there and enjoyed skipping through magazines while eating my lunch. From there on, I spent most of my lunch hours in the library.

The school had nice celebrations like Halloween which I really enjoyed. Upon David's recommendation I dressed up as Goldilocks and the three bears which

Elementary School Farewell Speeches:

THE SUPERHUJINN Mamadou A Diallo, 2024-04-14 A young supernatural being grew up in a community and discovered his gift He found out about elite secret organizations employing beings like him Some organizations wanted to recruit him while others targeted him He teamed up with a top administration to defend the world from evil spirits THE SUMMER THE CIRCUS CAME TO TOWN Diny Robinson, 2025-09-08 Teacher Ivy Hill finishes the school year as the circus comes to town She learns it is returning after fifty years bringing with it a large mystery and is very surprised to find she is involved On her mother's death bed she promised to marry before she turned thirty Even that promise leads back to the circus An unstable leader of Organized crime has been chased out of Las Vegas and settles in her area At her dismay he falls in love with her putting her quest for answers in jeopardy Escaping her own murder sets her up with romance and being able to keep the promise made to her mother On Fire, Under Fire, or Fired Kristi Wilson, Susan Enfield, 2025-03-01 On Fire Under Fire or Fired Superintendents in the Pandemic provides a unique view into the unprecedented challenges and transformative opportunities superintendents faced during and after the COVID 19 pandemic and examines the lessons that can be learned moving forward In their own words current and former superintendents reflect on their challenges and successes and share recommendations on how we can continue to learn from this historic moment and advance our public education system to serve all students Written by two veteran superintendents with decades of experience this book offers invaluable insights Gi I Tilu Gradu (In the Third Grade) Peter R. Onedera, 2009-05 Folds of Past, Present and Future Sarah Van Ruyskensvelde, Geert Thyssen, Frederik Herman, Angelo Van Gorp, Pieter Verstraete, 2021-09-07 This volume brings together important theoretical and methodological issues currently being debated in the field of history of education The contributions shed insightful and critical light on the historiography of education on issues of decolonization on the historical development of the educational sciences and on the potentiality attached to the use of new and challenging source material Tabibito Hideki Yukawa, 1982 This is Yukawa's autobiography of his early years written in Japanese when he was fifty years old It describes his family background and the education and experience both social and intellectual that helped to form his character and direct his career Especially valuable to the historian of science are his discussions of scientific relationships with his colleague Sin Itiro Tomonaga with his teacher Yoshio Nishina and with his students who later became his collaborators Sakata Taketani and Kobayashi The Story ends with the writing of his first scientific paper in English being the birth of the meson theory of nuclear forces Also included are the original paper of the meson theory by Prof H Yukawa and an introduction by Prof L M Brown Creating Joyful Classrooms Sarah M. Butzin, 2018-01-15 Creating Joyful Classrooms is a practical response to the malaise in America's schools created by high stakes testing disrespect for the teaching profession and resources being redirected to charter schools and private school vouchers Classroom teachers feel helpless and students feel hapless Joy has left the building This book offers the antidote to return joy and passion to teaching and learning Whether a beginning teacher or a seasoned veteran this book shows the way back to timeless child centered best practices that engage young children and increase academic achievement As joyful classrooms multiply their success will drive out the poisonous rancor of cynicism and despair to become beacons of hope for children everywhere This book also makes the case for changing the status quo in the elementary school The standard traditional grade school is failing to meet the needs of children growing up in the information age Elementary schools must evolve into multi grade multi dimensional safe havens that challenge children academically while remembering to cherish childhood Based upon the theory of invitational education this book provides specific strategies along with classroom management tools to create highly engaging classrooms for young children It also offers inspiring stories of heroic teachers who beat the odds to bring joy back to school It s not too late for a better tomorrow Voices of the Lost Children of Greece Mary Cardaras,2023-01-10

Voices of the Lost Children of Greece is a collection of essays from Greek born adoptees in the 1950s after two consecutive wars that ravaged the country Never before has this group of adoptees come together to write their stories and share their closely held feelings While many of the adoptees have similar experiences and while they may share some common thoughts about their adoptions their stories are vastly different some harrowing others remarkable The collection will illustrate the impact of adoption itself over years no matter if children were displaced from their parents and country as infants or as youngsters The book will shed light on adoption from many disciplinary angles including sociological psychological and anthropological It will also put these adoptions into a larger historical context The book is further enhanced by Greek born adoptee academic poet and writer Dr Andrew Mossin who writes the Foreword by Dr Gonda Van Steen a preeminent modern Greek scholar who pens the first chapter about the history of such adoptions and in the final chapter by Dr Eirini Papadaki who has written extensively about the women of Greece and adoption to bring readers a current assessment of adoption practices in Greece today Bailey's index to 'The Times'. Nancy Bailey,1899 Limited Recall Ken Scarlett,2005 Ken

Scarlett one of Australia s best known curators and writers on sculpture has this time written and illustrated a series of 30 short stories which draw upon his imagined and real experiences of life from adolescence through to the present The stories are light hearted humorous sometimes satirical and occasionally focused on the art world as he found it during his career as a sculptor art educationalist curator and world traveller Memories of a Georgia Teacher Martha Mizell Puckett,2002

While Puckett offers a valuable perspective on schooling in the twentieth century rural South she also captures the essence of daily life in the communities in which she taught We read of how she sometimes boarded with the parents of her pupils of how teachers students and parents joined together in observance of holidays and of how schooling managed to continue through the busy growing seasons Personal details of Puckett s life also emerge from her relationship with her parents to her life at home with her husband and their eight children The Seventy Years of My Life Zunxian Wu,1992 90 Seconds to Midnight Charlotte DeCroes Jacobs, The Virginia Teacher ,1920 A Republic, If We Can Teach It Jeffrey

Sikkenga, David Davenport, 2024-05-14 America faces a crisis in civic education that imperils the long term health of our country Too many Americans especially young people do not have the knowledge of our history and principles necessary to sustain our republic Recent national test results reveal the sad state of civic education in our schools The 2022 report of the National Assessment of Educational Progress showed that only 22 percent of eighth graders tested were proficient or better in their knowledge of civics and proficiency in US history dropped to an anemic 13 percent The Annenberg Policy Center reported in 2019 that only 39 percent of Americans could name the three branches of government while its 2017 study showed that 37 percent could not name a single right in the First Amendment How can we keep a republic as Benjamin Franklin put it if we don't know what a republic is At a deeper level the crisis is not simply about facts and information If the next generations of Americans do not come to understand that our history and principles are good and that they merit their affection our experiment in self government could fail Action is needed now to reverse the trend A Dynamic Approach to Language Arts Lillian M. Logan, Vigil G. Logan, 1967 Mind As Action James V. Wertsch, 1998-01-08 Contemporary social problems typically involve many complex interrelated dimensions psychological cultural and institutional among others But today the social sciences have fragmented into isolated disciplines lacking a common language and analyses of social problems have polarized into approaches that focus on an individual's mental functioning over social settings or vice versa In Mind as Action James V Wertsch argues that current approaches to social issues have been blinded by the narrow confines of increasing specialization in the social sciences In response to this conceptual blindness he proposes a method of sociocultural analysis that connects the various perspectives of the social sciences in an integrated nonreductive fashion Wertsch maintains that we can use mediated action which he defines as the irreducible tension between active agents and cultural tools as a productive method of explicating the complicated relationships between human action and its manifold cultural institutional and historical contexts Drawing on the ideas of Lev Vygotsky Mikhail Bakhtin and Kenneth Burke as well as research from various fields this book traces the implications of mediated action for a sociocultural analysis of the mind as well as for some of today's most pressing social issues Wertsch's investigation of forms of mediated action such as stereotypes and historical narratives provide valuable new insights into issues such as the mastery appropriation and resistance of culture By providing an analytic unit that has the possibility of operating at the crossroads of various disciplines Mind as Action will be important reading for academics students and researchers in psychology linguistics cognitive science sociology literary analysis and philosophy Journal of Education and School World ,1889 Richard Nixon Hal Bochinn, 1990-01-19 Although much has been written about Richard Nixon the man and the politician comparatively little attention has been paid to Nixon the public speaker This is unfortunate because it was through public speaking that Nixon an introverted private man first captured public attention won a seat in the House of Representatives advanced to the Senate held on to his vice presidential nomination lost and won the presidency and eventually molded a constituency that carried him to one of the most overwhelming presidential election victories in American history. It was also through public speaking that President Nixon attempted to defend himself against charges related to the Watergate incident and sought to save himself from impeachment. When his rhetorical efforts failed to rouse popular support, he had no choice but to resign. This volume examines the combination of personal characteristics and artistic choices that made Richard M. Nixon a successful, albeit extremely controversial, public speaker from 1946 to the present. Based on Nixon's own writings, primary materials found in special collections, a number of rhetorical studies by communication scholars, and historical case studies, the most complete picture yet of Nixon as a rhetorical strategist emerges. The study of Nixon's rhetoric is the study of many important issues from the alleged threat of subversive communism to Vietnam to Watergate confronting America from 1946 to 1974. It is also the study of the man himself because Nixon took an active role in the composition of all his important addresses. That both the highs and lows of Richard Nixon's career were marked by public address makes the rhetoric of Richard Nixon a worthy subject for anyone interested in political science, history, or communication and persuasion.
