Em Big Hoom:

Em and the Big Hoom Jerry Pinto, 2014-06-24 The devastatingly original debut novel from a winner of the Windham Campbell Prize for Fiction Profoundly moving I cannot remember when I last read something as touching as this Amitav Ghosh author of The Glass Palace First published by a small press in India Jerry Pinto's debut novel has already taken the literary world by storm Suffused with compassion humor and hard won wisdom Em and the Big Hoom is a modern masterpiece and its American publication is certain to be one of the major literary events of the season Meet Imelda and Augustine or as our young narrator calls his unusual parents Em and the Big Hoom Most of the time Em smokes endless beedis and sings her way through life She is the sun around which everyone else orbits But as enchanting and high spirited as she can be when Em's bipolar disorder seizes her she becomes monstrous sometimes with calamitous consequences for herself and others This accomplished debut is graceful and urgent with a one of a kind voice that will stay with readers long after the last page

Understanding Disability Ranu Uniyal, Fatima Rizvi, 2023-11-02 This edited volume brings together contributions on disability studies organized around two themes literary and sociological aspects The contributors include academics disability activists and researchers from within and outside the Indian periphery While the book strengthens the disability discourse and contributes to building academic scholarship on this subject it also promotes disability activism by giving space to both direct practitioners and persons with disabilities The chapters discuss various analytical and literary aspects of the marginalization experienced by the disabled community and bring forth new and elaborate perspectives It draws connections across multiple identities and includes personal narratives across nations cultures and societies It is an excellent research resource on disability studies in India for scholars and students in the area of humanities education law sociology and social work while at the same time also addressing the global context

Narrative Art and the Politics of Health Neil Brooks, Sarah Blanchette, 2021-03-15 As countless alterations have taken place in medicine in the twenty first century so too have literary artists addressed new understandings of disease and pathology Disability studies fat studies mad studies end of life studies and critical race studies among other fields have sought to better understand what social factors lead to pathologizing certain conditions while other variations remain normalized While recognizing that these scholarly approaches often speak to identities with radically different experiences of pathologization this collection of essays is open to all critical engagements with narratives of health in order to facilitate the messiness of cross disciplinary collaboration and interdisciplinarity As scientific advances provide insight into a wide range of well being issues and help extend life it is vital that we come to question the very categories of healthy and unhealthy This collection brings together analyses of cultural productions which probe those categorizations and suggest new psychological and philosophical understandings which will help better apply and guide the knowledge being rapidly developed within the life sciences Right of health is a widely accepted human right but in applying a right to healthcare what care and what sort of health are less universally agreed upon The contributors share an interest in addressing who controls answers to the questions of how do we define a healthy body and a healthy life and what are the political forces that influence our definitions of health Retrieving the Crip Outsider Someshwar Sati,2024-03-30 Why are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability Literatures of Madness Elizabeth J. Donaldson,2018-07-25 Literatures of Madness Disability Studies and Mental Health brings together scholars working in disability studies mad studies feminist theory Indigenous studies postcolonial theory Jewish literature queer studies American studies trauma studies and comics to create an intersectional community of scholarship in literary disability studies of mental health The collection contains essays on canonical authors and lesser known and sometimes forgotten writers including Sylvia Plath Louisa May Alcott Hannah Weiner Mary Jane Ward Michelle Cliff Lee Maracle Joanne Greenberg Ann Bannon Jerry Pinto Persimmon Blackbridge and others The volume addresses the under representation of madness and psychiatric disability in the field of disability studies which traditionally focuses on physical disability and explores the controversies and the common ground among disability studies anti psychiatric discourses mad studies graphic medicine and health medical humanities The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka,Tej N. Dhar,2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature      The Novel Cure Ella Berthoud, Susan Elderkin, Indrajit Hazra, 2014-08-01 Whether you have a stubbed toe or a stubborn case of the blues within these pages you ll find a cure in the form of a novel or a combination of novels to help ease your pain You ll also find advice on how to tackle common reading ailments such as what to do when you feel overwhelmed by the number of books in the world or if you have a tendency to give up halfway through When read at the right moment in your life a novel can quite literally change it and The Novel Cure is a reminder of that power Written with authority passion and wit here is a fresh approach to finding new books to read and an enchanting way to revisit the books on your shelves      The Indian English Novel of the New Millennium Prabhat K. Singh, 2013-08-19 The Indian English Novel of the New Millennium is a book of sixteen pieces of scholarly critique on recent Indian novels written in the English language some on specific literary trends in fictional writing and others on individual texts published in the twenty first century by contemporary Indian novelists such as Amitav Ghosh Kiran Desai Aravind Adiga K N Daruwalla Upamanyu Chatterjee David Davidar Esterine Kire Iralu Siddharth Chowdhury and Chetan Bhagat The volume focuses closely on the defining features of the different emerging forms of the Indian English novel such as narratives of female subjectivity crime fiction terror novels science fiction campus novels animal novels graphic novels disability texts LGBT voices dalit writing slumdog narratives eco narratives narratives of myth and fantasy philosophical novels historical novels postcolonial and multicultural narratives and Diaspora novels A select bibliography of recent Indian English novels from 2001 2013 has been given especially for the convenience of the researchers The book will be of great interest and benefit to college and university students and teachers of Indian English literature      Disturbing Spirits Beverly A. Tsacoyianis, 2021-06-15 This book investigates the psychological toll of conflict in the Middle East during the twentieth century including discussion of how spiritual and religious frameworks influence practice and theory The concept of mental health treatment in war torn Middle Eastern nations is painfully understudied In Disturbing Spirits Beverly A Tsacoyianis blends social cultural and medical history research methods with approaches in disability and trauma studies to demonstrate that the history of mental illness in Syria and Lebanon since the 1890s is embedded in disparate but not necessarily mutually exclusive ideas about legitimate healing Tsacoyianis examines the encounters between Western psychiatry and local practices and argues that the attempt to implement modern cosmopolitan biomedicine for the last 120 years has largely failed in part because of political instability and political traumas and in part because of narrow definitions of modern medicine that excluded spirituality and locally meaningful cultural practices Analyzing hospital records ethnographic data oral history research historical fiction and journalistic nonfiction Tsacoyianis claims that psychiatrists presented mental health treatment to Syrians and Lebanese not only as a way to control or cure mental illness but also as a modernizing worldview to combat popular ideas about jinn based origins of mental illness and to encourage acceptance of psychiatry Treatment devoid of spiritual therapies ultimately delegitimized psychiatry among lower classes Tsacoyianis maintains that tensions between psychiatrists and vernacular healers developed as political transformations devastated collective and individual psyches and disrupted social order Scholars working on healing in the modern Middle East have largely studied either psychiatric or non biomedical healing but rarely their connections to each other or to politics In this groundbreaking work Tsacoyianis connects the discussion of global responsibility to scholarly debates about human suffering and the moral call to caregiving Disturbing Spirits will interest students and scholars of the history of medicine and public health Middle Eastern studies and postcolonial literature

The Contemporary Novel and the City S. Khanna, 2015-12-04 This book examines the deeply divided terrain of the twentieth century city and its formative impact on narrative fiction It focuses on two major world authors at the two ends of the twentieth century who write systematically about the colonial and postcolonial cities they were born in James Joyce and Dublin and Salman Rushdie and Bombay

The Cambridge Companion to the City in World Literature Ato Quayson, Jini Kim Watson, 2023-07-27 This book addresses the way cities have given rise to key aesthetic dispositions that are central to debates in World Literature

Writing the Self in Illness Amala Poli, 2019-09-01 Writing the Self in Illness Reading the Experiential Through the Medical Memoir is MUP's refreshing venture into the developing fields of Medical and Health Humanities with an aim to consider the necessity of the narrative knowledge as complementary to the contemporary notions of well being illness and healthcare Is individual happiness contingent on health and well being How does one find happiness in the throes of illness In the present day scenario wherein medical practice is largely dominated by evidence based understanding diagnostic language and problem solving methods the discipline of Medical Humanities emerges with a reciprocal dialogue between Humanities Social Sciences Health and Medicine The study of varied experiential narratives literary works and unmediated accounts of patients and healthcare professionals is foregrounded in Medical Humanities to amplify knowledge and understanding about the complexity of encounters with illness and their transformational quality in a nuanced manner Both thought provoking and informative this publication brings about the anecdotal form of personal narratives in the light of medical discourses along with the specific cultural context of the narrative The present publication seeks to be an important reading for students and academics in the field of medical humanities health professionals or medical practitioners as well as

scholars aspiring to venture into this flourishing field      Upwelling Systems of the World Jochen Kämpf, Piers Chapman, 2016-08-29 Upwelling systems are special places in the oceans where nutrient enriched water is brought into the euphotic zone to fuel phytoplankton blooms that via marine food web interactions create the world's richest fish resources. This book introduces the reader to the interdisciplinary science of upwelling and provides a comprehensive overview of the world's most productive marine ecosystems in the context of climate variability, climate change and human exploitation. This material presented is suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate study or just for anyone interested to learn about the creation of life in the oceans and how this is compromised by human activities      Oswaal SSC CHSL Combined Higher Secondary Level (10+2) Tier-1 | 25 Previous Years Solved Papers | Year-wise 2017-2023 | For 2024 Exam Oswaal Editorial Board, 2024-02-20 Description of the Product 100% Updated With 2023 Papers Fully Solved Extensive Practice With 2500 Questions and Two Practice Papers Concept Clarity Learn Key Concepts through Detailed Explanations Valuable Exam Insights With Hints Shortcuts Expert Tips to crack SSC CHSL Tier 1 in the first attempt 100% Exam Readiness With the Latest Five Years Trend Analysis 2020-2023      The Metaphysical City Rob Sullivan, 2019-01-15 The Metaphysical City examines the metaphorical existence of the city as an entity to further understand its significance on urban planning and geography. It encourages an open minded approach when studying cities so as to uncover broader connecting themes that may otherwise be missed. Case studies of New York, Paris, Cairo, Mumbai, Tokyo and Los Angeles explore a metaphor specific to each city. This multidisciplinary analysis uses philosophical treatises, geographical analysis and comparative literature to uncover how each city corresponds to the metaphor. As such it allows the reader to understand the city from six differing points of view. This book would be beneficial to students and academics of urban planning, geography and comparative literature, in particular those with an interest in a metaphysical examination of cities      Indian Social Milieu in the novels of Chetan Bhagat and Aravind Adiga Dr. Harleen Kaur Ruprah, 2023-10-31 Many writers are also social critics who aptly use their platform to raise awareness of social issues, challenge power structures and promote social change. Aravind Adiga and Chetan Bhagat are two such writers who have mirrored the true face of the modern society, unveiling the core mindset of the youth. Both the writers are activists of the present age who highlight social issues concerning bribery, poverty, dishonesty, casteism, corruption and degeneration of values in the Indian contemporary society. Their novels are the amalgamation of fantasy and reality. They have portrayed a true face of modern Indian society by describing the change in social, cultural as well as political scenario through their imaginary characters      Homeless K.
