God Breaks His Silence A Study Guide For Christmas:

God Breaks His Silence Jacob Abshire, 2015-11 The air is getting colder The days are getting shorter Fall is here and Christmas is coming The stores have already prepared their windows the neighborhoods are decorated with wreaths and lights and the kids are excited Everything about this time is grand Andy Williams was right it is the most wonderful time of the year From the Christian's perspective this time is particularly special because we celebrate the coming of our Lord Jesus Beyond the Santa exploits and arguments over nativity displays in public there is a culminating atmosphere that directs all of our senses toward Christ It has become easier each year to forget what the season is all about There's the hustle in buying the traffic in the streets and that irritated lady who mouths off to the store clerk when they run out of Elmos So many things can distract us from pardon the cliché the reason for the season If we can prepare ourselves ahead this time of the year can be wonderfully useful to our families We have to be intentional We have to take advantage of the sights sounds and smells and use them to stir our affections toward heaven This short study guide is aimed at doing just that It focuses on two different stories about two different people from two different cities who respond two different ways to one similar message salvation is coming

Where Is God in a Messed-Up World? Roger Carswell,2009 If God exists and really is a God of love then why doesn t he stop the suffering and problems in our world Roger Carswell is realistic enough to admit that there are things God reveals to us and things he doesn t reveal He argues that the starting point is to find out who God is and figure out if he can be trusted even if we don t have all the answers God has not only been faithful to me he has been overwhelmingly kind incredibly merciful consistently good and unbelievably patient says Roger The author s own experience of suffering with depression and other real-life stories that are included make this a compassionate look at one of the toughest questions about the Christian faith Moreover our questioning need not be a barrier to entrusting ourselves to God Northwestern Christian Advocate ,1911 Disenfranchised Grief Kenneth J. Doka,2025-06-03 Thirty years ago Kenneth J Doka coined the term disenfranchised grief to refer to losses people experience that are not socially sanctioned openly acknowledged or publicly mourned The concept of disenfranchised grief is now widely recognized and used in the health professions and social sciences Unfortunately the same attention to the issue is less true of clergy training ministry practice and many caregiving circles Yet this lack of awareness and training of clergy and congregational caregivers to attend to disenfranchised grief critically hampers their vital roles in validating and empowering grieving individuals educating parishioners and creating rituals that offer comfort and support to disenfranchised grievers Disenfranchised Grief Breaking the Silence helps clergy and ministry caregivers understand current grief theory and acknowledge a variety of situations in their congregations where grief might be overlooked or even discouraged This book offers much needed tools to help a variety of caregiving practitioners gain skills and strategies to enhance their ministries to an often neglected population Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002-02 The Youth's Companion Combined with American Boy ,1924 The Outlook Lyman Abbott,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Ernest Hamlin Abbott,Francis Rufus Bellamy,1895
