God They are soon coming upon all sinners and unbelievers and all those who refuse to believe on the Son of God With a great desire to do something for the Lord he preached his first sermon in a little army tent and he has since traveled to fifteen countries and is now pastor at Grace Truth Church in Dawsonville Georgia Pastor Manderss dream was to have a church like the Murrayville Revival Center where he got saved The Lord showed him in a night vision that it was his perfect will so he started working toward it with no money just a step of faith It has been the Lords to make a way from a storefront to a cabinet shop that we renovated that is now a beautiful church Through much prayer and sacrifice now the vision has come to pass Teamwork makes the dream work      Listening for God's Call Susan H. Collaboration of Women's and Men's Leadership Edith Khakasa Chemorion,2023-02-24 Moving from Hegemony to Partnership in Leadership When God created women and men the intention was for them to be partners with each other and to serve in the world as cocreators with God The story of human beings however has been impacted with culture and other social factors to create different forms of hegemonies These hegemonies have been key in values that create social injustices that are in all spheres of life but more so in women and men relationships In cases of leadership and in many cultures men have adopted attitudes that justify exclusion of women from leadership In religious circles it is justified by the ways texts are read and interpreted through the lens of culture If we begin from the premises of justice and believing in a God of justice then hegemonic ways of understating leadership should be null and void Acknowledging that human beings are created in the image and likeness of God demands that we act differently What this has meant is to challenge injustice in leadership by men and women in partnership The circle of concerned African women theologians in Africa where Rev Edith Chemorion is a member has over the years provided safe spaces for mentoring women to research and write about the experiences of women but much more so to call for justice in all areas including the study of theological education and for leadership in the churches This has borne results because of the partnership of men and women Reverend Edith s contributions to the rallying call is that society moves from hegemony to partnership in all fronts but especially in offering leadership by all We are strong when we partner and we image God s will for society in partnership Prof Esther Mombo Lecturer Faculty of Theology St Paul s University Limuru Kenya      *America!
