

The image shows two statues of female figures, possibly goddesses, standing in a room. They are both wearing long, dark, flowing dresses and have their wrists bound together in front of them. The statue on the left is light-colored, while the one on the right is dark. They are positioned in front of a large window that lets in bright light, creating a strong silhouette effect. To the left of the statues is a wooden door. The floor is made of large, light-colored tiles. The overall atmosphere is somber and dramatic.
